(a) The parties hereto intend that, for all purposes, the transfer to the Trust of the COFINA Bonds and National Insurance Policy shall be, and shall be construed as, a transfer of the COFINA Bonds and National Insurance Policy on behalf of the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders in lieu of a transfer of such assets to the Trust directly by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and shall constitute, in all respects, an absolute, irrevocable transfer, conveyance, and assignment, without recourse, of the Trust Estate to the Trust, and immediately after giving effect to the transfer contemplated hereby on the Closing Date, the Depositor will have no further interest (legal or equitable) in the Trust Estate and the Trust Estate will not be property of the Depositor's estate in the event of a liquidation, reorganization, or similar proceeding of the Depositor and the Trust shall have the absolute right to take whatever action it may deem appropriate with respect to the Trust Estate. Notional Amount: $34,330,077.00

ISIN #: US19237EAA29

Each Taxable Trust Unit represented by this Certificate is one of a duly authorized issue of Certificates designated as the Taxable Trust Units (herein collectively called the “Units”), and representing a beneficial ownership interest in a portion (described below) of the Trust Estate created by the Trust Agreement referred to below.

Defined terms not otherwise defined in this Certificate shall have the meaning set forth in the Trust Agreement.

Each Unit consists of (in the same Notional Amount): (A) one Taxable Trust Certificate, which in turn represents an undivided beneficial ownership interest in the Taxable Bond Account created under the Trust Agreement, and (B) one Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation), which in turn represents an undivided beneficial ownership interest in the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation).

This certifies that CEDE & CO. is the registered owner of the Notional Amount of Taxable Trust Units evidenced by this Certificate. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Trust Agreement and Standard Terms referred to below and the Trust Agreement contains rules as to construction that shall be applicable herein.

The Trust was created pursuant to a Trust Agreement (the “Trust Agreement”) dated as of ~~[•]~~ February 12, 2019, by and among Corporación del Fondo de Interès Apremiarte de Puerto Rico, whose name in English is PUERTO RICO SALES TAX FINANCING CORPORATION (“COFINA” or the “Depositor”), NATIONAL PUBLIC FINANCE GUARANTEE CORPORATION (“National”), U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION as trustee (the “Trustee”) and U.S. BANK TRUST NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as Delaware trustee (the “Delaware Trustee” which term includes any successor under the Trust Agreement and together with the Trustee, collectively the “Trustees”), and the Standard Terms to Trust Agreement, dated as of ~~[•]~~ February 12, 2019 (the “Standard Terms”), a summary of certain of the pertinent provisions of which is set forth hereinafter. This Certificate is issued under and is subject to the terms, provisions and conditions of the Trust Agreement, to which Trust Agreement the Holder of this Certificate by virtue of its acceptance hereof assents and by which such Holder is bound. Distributions on this Certificate shall be made by the Paying Agent under the Trust Agreement.

This Certificate is issued under the Trust Agreement to which reference is hereby made for a statement of the respective rights thereunder of the Depositor, the Trustees, National and the Holder of the Certificate and the terms upon which the Certificate is executed and delivered.

This Certificate does not bear interest. Distributions on this Certificate represent a combination of certain interest and principal payments made on the New COFINA Bonds issued as non-tax-exempt for federal income tax purposes and certain other payments which have been assigned or contributed to the Trust Estate and may vary from period to period. Each such Distribution shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Holder's pro rata share of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) as of the date such Distribution (calculated in accordance with the Trust Agreement), in an amount equal to the pro rata share of such Distribution as set forth in the Standard Terms.

In certain circumstances, National may instruct the Trustee in writing to sell the New COFINA Bonds (the "Subject Bonds") underlying the Units for cash (a "Bond Sale"). The Holder of this Certificate shall have the option to elect to receive either (i) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the "Bond Election") or in lieu thereof (ii) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds ("Cash Proceeds") from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), as set forth in the Standard Terms.

This Certificate is not subject to redemption by the Trust and is not subject to repurchase by the Trust at the option of the Holder of this Certificate.

The Holder, by its acceptance of this Certificate, agrees that it will look solely to the funds allocated pursuant to the Trust Agreement for distribution hereunder and that none of the Trustee or the Paying Agent in their individual capacities nor the Depositor is personally liable to such Holder for any amount payable under this Certificate or the Trust Agreement, subject in the case of the Trustee to any liability under the Trust Agreement, provided that the foregoing shall not prevent the Holder from appearing or litigating any such proceeding after it has been instituted.

The Holder, by its acceptance of this Certificate hereby agrees that (i) the Trust Agreement is executed and delivered by U.S. Bank National Association, not individually or personally, but solely as Trustee in the exercise of the powers and authority conferred upon and vested in it, and pursuant to instructions set forth therein, (ii) each of the representations, undertakings and agreements herein made on the part of the Trustee or the Trust is made and intended not as personal representations, undertakings or agreements of U.S. Bank National Association, (iii) nothing herein contained shall be construed as creating or imposing any liability upon U.S. Bank National Association, individually or personally, or the Depositor to perform any covenant, either express or implied, contained herein, all such liability, if any, is hereby expressly waived by the parties hereto and by any Person claiming by, through or under the parties hereto and such waiver shall bind any third party making a claim by or through one of the parties hereto, and (iv) under no circumstances shall U.S. Bank National Association or the Depositor be personally liable for the payment of any indebtedness or expenses of the Trust, or be personally liable for the breach or failure of any obligation, representation, warranty or covenant made or undertaken by the Trust under the Trust Agreement.

Distributions on this Certificate will be made as provided in the Trust Agreement by the Paying Agent by wire transfer to such Holder without the presentation or surrender of this Certificate or the making of any notation hereon. Except as otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement and notwithstanding the above, the final distribution on this Certificate will be made after due notice by the Paying Agent of the pendency of such distribution and only upon presentation and surrender of this Certificate at the office or agency maintained by the Unit Registrar for that purpose.

Reference is hereby made to the further provisions of this Certificate set forth on the reverse hereof, which further provisions shall for all purposes have the same effect as if set forth at this place.

Unless this Certificate has been executed by the manual signature of an authorized officer of the Trustee and the certificate of authentication hereon shall have been executed by an authorized officer of the Unit Registrar, or an authenticating agent by manual signature, this Certificate shall not entitle the Holder hereof to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose.

THIS CERTIFICATE SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO ITS CONFLICT OF LAWS PROVISIONS, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Trustee, on behalf of the Trust and not in its individual capacity, has caused this Certificate to be duly executed.

REVERSE OF TAXABLE TRUST UNIT CERTIFICATE

The Certificate does not represent an obligation of, or an interest in, National, the Trustee, or any Affiliates of each of them and no recourse may be had against any such parties or their assets, except as expressly set forth or contemplated herein or in the Trust Agreement. In addition, this Certificate is not guaranteed by any governmental agency or instrumentality and is limited in right of payment to certain collections and recoveries with respect to the Trust Estate, all as more specifically set forth herein and under the Trust Agreement. A copy of the Trust Agreement may be examined by any Holder upon written request during normal business hours at the principal office of the Trustee and at such other places, if any, designated by the Trustee.

The Trust Agreement and the Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and the Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

- a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;
- b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;
- c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;
- d) amend Section 9.01 of the Standard Terms without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;
- e) adversely affect in any other respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in a), b), or c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by outstanding Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;
- f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by outstanding Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

- g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

As provided in the Trust Agreement and subject to certain limitations therein set forth, including the limitations set forth in Article V of the Standard Terms, the transfer of this Certificate is registrable in the Certificate Register upon the surrendering of this Certificate for registration of transfer at the offices or agencies of the Unit Registrar, accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Unit Registrar duly executed by the Holder hereof or such Holder's attorney duly authorized in writing, and thereupon a new Certificate will be issued to the designated transferee. The initial Unit Registrar appointed under the Trust Agreement is the Trustee.

No service charge will be made for any such registration of transfer or exchange, but the Trustee or the Unit Registrar may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge payable in connection therewith or any expense incurred thereby.

The Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Unit Registrar and any agent of the Trustee, the Paying Agent, or the Unit Registrar may treat the Holder hereof as the owner hereof for all purposes, and none of the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Unit Registrar or any such agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

The obligations and responsibilities created by the Trust Agreement and the Trust shall terminate upon the payment to the Holders of the Certificates of all amounts required to be paid to them pursuant to the Trust Agreement, the disposition of all property held as part of the Trust Estate and payment of any costs, expenses and indemnities due and owing to the Trustees under the Trust Agreement.

ISIN #: US19237EAB02

Each Tax-Exempt Trust Unit represented by this Certificate is one of a duly authorized issue of Certificates designated as the Tax-Exempt Trust Units (herein collectively called the “Units”), issued in authorized denominations of $1.00 and $1.00 increments thereof, and representing a beneficial ownership interest in a portion (described below) of the Trust Estate created by the Trust Agreement referred to below.

Defined terms not otherwise defined in this Certificate shall have the meaning set forth in the Trust Agreement.

Each Unit consists of (in the same Notional Amount): (A) one Tax-Exempt Trust Certificate, which in turn represents an undivided beneficial ownership interest in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account created under the Trust Agreement, and (B) one Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation), which in turn represents an undivided beneficial ownership interest in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation).

This certifies that CEDE & CO. is the registered owner of the Notional Amount of Tax-Exempt Trust Units evidenced by this Certificate. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Trust Agreement and Standard Terms referred to below and the Trust Agreement contains rules as to construction that shall be applicable herein.

The Trust was created pursuant to a Trust Agreement (the “Trust Agreement”) dated as of ~~+~~ February 12, 2019, by and among Corporación del Fondo de Interès Apremiarte de Puerto Rico, whose name in English is PUERTO RICO SALES TAX FINANCING CORPORATION (“COFINA” or the “Depositor”), NATIONAL PUBLIC FINANCE GUARANTEE CORPORATION (“National”), U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION as trustee (the “Trustee”) and U.S. BANK TRUST NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as Delaware trustee (the “Delaware Trustee” which term includes any successor under the Trust Agreement and together with the Trustee, collectively the “Trustees”), and the Standard Terms to Trust Agreement, dated as of ~~+~~ February 12, 2019 (the “Standard Terms”), a summary of certain of the pertinent provisions of which is set forth hereinafter. This Certificate is issued under the Trust Agreement to which reference is hereby made for a statement of the respective rights thereunder of the Depositor, the Trustees, National and the Holder of the Certificate and the terms upon which the Certificate is executed and delivered.

This Certificate does not bear interest. Distributions on this Certificate represent a combination of certain interest and principal payments made on the New COFINA Bonds issued as tax-exempt for federal income tax purposes and certain other payments which have been assigned or contributed to the Trust Estate and may vary from period to period. Each such Distribution shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Holder's pro rata share of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) as of the date such Distribution (calculated in accordance with the Trust Agreement), in an amount equal to the pro rata share of such Distribution.

In certain circumstances, National may instruct the Trustee to sell the New COFINA Bonds (the "Subject Bonds") underlying the Units for cash (a "Bond Sale"). The Holder of this Certificate shall have the option to elect to receive either (i) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the "Bond Election") or in lieu thereof (ii) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds ("Cash Proceeds") from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), as set forth in the Standard Terms.

This Certificate is not subject to redemption by the Trust and is not subject to repurchase by the Trust at the option of the Holder of this Certificate.

The Holder, by its acceptance of this Certificate, agrees that it will look solely to the funds allocated pursuant to the Trust Agreement for distribution hereunder and that none of the Trustee or the Paying Agent in their individual capacities nor the Depositor is personally liable to such Holder for any amount payable under this Certificate or the Trust Agreement, subject in the case of the Trustee to any liability under the Trust Agreement, provided that the foregoing shall not prevent the Holder from appearing or litigating any such proceeding after it has been instituted.

As provided in the Trust Agreement and subject to certain limitations therein set forth, including the limitations set forth in Article V of the Standard Terms, the transfer of this Certificate is registrable in the Certificate Register upon the surrendering of this Certificate for registration of transfer at the offices or agencies of the Unit Registrar, accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Unit Registrar duly executed by the Holder hereof or such Holder's attorney duly authorized in writing, and thereupon a new Certificate will be issued to the designated transferee. The initial Unit Registrar appointed under the Trust Agreement is the Trustee.

No service charge will be made for any such registration of transfer or exchange, but the Trustee or the Unit Registrar may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge payable in connection therewith or any expense incurred thereby.

The Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Unit Registrar and any agent of the Trustee, the Paying Agent, or the Unit Registrar may treat the Holder hereof as the owner hereof for all purposes, and none of the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Unit Registrar or any such agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

(xiv) perform any duties or obligations of the Depositor or any other Person;

(xv) make any loans or advances to any third party, including, without limitation, any Unitholder, Depositor or Affiliate of the Trust, or any principal or Affiliate thereof;

(xvi) fail to file its own tax returns as and if required to do so by applicable law (subject to any permitted extensions and except to the extent the Trust is treated as a grantor trust for tax purposes) and to pay any taxes required to be paid by it under applicable law;

(xvii) fail to hold itself out to the public as a legal entity separate and distinct from any other Person, fail to conduct its activities solely in its own name or in the name of the Trustee and as a separate and distinct entity, or fail to correct any known misunderstanding regarding its separate identity;

(xviii) identify itself as a department or division of any other Person;

(xix) fail to observe all formalities required of a Delaware statutory trust;

(xx) fail to pay its expenses and liabilities only out of its own funds to the extent such funds are available and fail to hold its assets only in its own name; provided, however, the foregoing shall not require the Depositor to sell any assets, or make any capital contribution, to the Trust;

(xxi) conduct any oral or written communication, including, without limitation, letters, invoices, purchase orders, contracts, statements and applications, other than in its own name or in the name of the Trustee;

(xxii) (a) institute proceedings to have the Trust declared or adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, (b) consent to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings against the Trust, (c) file a petition or consent to a petition seeking reorganization or relief on behalf of the Trust under any applicable federal or state law relating to bankruptcy, (d) consent to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, sequestrator (or any similar official) of the Trust or a substantial portion of the property of the Trust, (e) make any assignment for the benefit of the Trust's creditors, (f) cause the Trust to admit in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due or (g) take any action, or cause the Trust to take any action, in furtherance of any of the foregoing;

(xxiii) supplement, modify, amend, restate, replace, waive or repeal this Section 10 or Sections 2.03, 2.04, 9.01 or 9.03 of the Standard Terms, or the definitions used in such Sections, in each case except for any supplement, modification, amendment or restatement of any such provision that (x) corrects any error and (y) would not (individually or together with other changes) be reasonably likely to cause the Trust to no longer be a "special purpose entity" in accordance with applicable law and standards; or (xxiv) supplement, modify, amend, restate, replace, waive or repeal any portion of this Trust Agreement or the Standard Terms except as expressly permitted by Section 9.01 of the Standard Terms.

(d) Failure of the Trust, the Depositor, National, any Unitholder, any Trustee or any other Person on behalf of the Trust, to comply with any of the foregoing covenants set forth in this Section 10 shall not affect the status of the Trust as a separate legal entity (unless in violation of the Delaware Trust Statute) nor cause the Trust to dissolve or terminate.

(e) To the extent that any provision of this Section 10 conflicts with, violates or otherwise is in contravention with any other provision of the Trust Agreement or the Standard Terms, the parties hereto and each Unitholder agree that the terms set forth in this Section 10 shall be controlling as expressly set forth herein.

Section 11. Non-Petition. The Depositor, National, the Trustee and the Delaware Trustee, by entering into this Agreement, and the Unitholders, by accepting a Trust Unit, hereby covenant and agree that they will not at any time institute against the Trust, or join in instituting against the Trust, any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under any federal or state bankruptcy or similar law; provided, however, that in the event a bankruptcy or similar proceeding is instituted against the Trust by another person, the Trustee may file appropriate proofs of claim.

Section 12. Certain Terms Regarding the Depositor. For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding any terms appearing herein or elsewhere to the contrary:

(i) The obligations of the Trust under the Trust Units and this Trust Agreement are non-recourse obligations of the Trust payable solely from the Trust Estate, and following realization of the Trust Estate, and its reduction to zero, any claims of the Holders of the Trust Units shall be extinguished. The Trust Units are not obligations of, and are not guaranteed by, the Depositor, and no recourse shall be had against any Officer, director, manager, employee, security holder or incorporator of the Depositor, or its successors or assigns, for the payment of any amounts payable under the Trust Units or the payment or performance of any obligation of the Trust under or pursuant to this Trust Agreement.

(ii) The recitals contained in this Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units, shall be taken as the statements of the Trust, and the Depositor assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Depositor makes no representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Trust Agreement, of the Trust, or of the Trust Units.

(iii) In purchasing any Trust Units in certificated form, the purchaser shall be required to acknowledge, represent to and agree, and in purchasing any Book-Entry Beneficial Interests in the Trust Units the purchaser shall be deemed to acknowledge, represent and agree, that none of the Depositor nor any of its affiliates, is acting as a fiduciary or a financial or investment advisor for such purchaser, and such purchaser is not relying (for purposes of making any investment decision or otherwise) upon any advice, representations or recommendations (in each case whether written or oral) of the Depositor or any of its affiliates.

(iv) The Depositor shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Trust of the Trust Units or the proceeds thereof or any amounts paid to the Trust pursuant to the provisions of this Trust Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Depositor, National, the Trustee and the Delaware Trustee have caused this Agreement to be duly executed by their respective officers thereunto duly authorized and all as of the date first set forth above.

Notional Amount: ~~-----~~$40,875,941.00

CUSIP #: ~~[•]~~19237GAA7

ISIN #: US19237GAA76

Each Taxable Trust Unit represented by this Certificate is one of a duly authorized issue of Certificates designated as the Taxable Trust Units (herein collectively called the “Units”), issued in authorized denominations of $1.00 and $1.00 increments thereof, and representing a beneficial ownership interest in a portion (described below) of the Trust Estate created by the Trust Agreement referred to below.

Defined terms not otherwise defined in this Certificate shall have the meaning set forth in the Trust Agreement.

Each Unit consists of (in the same Notional Amount): (A) one Taxable Trust Certificate, which in turn represents an undivided beneficial ownership interest in the Taxable Bond Account created under the Trust Agreement, and (B) one Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation), which in turn represents an undivided beneficial ownership interest in the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation).

This certifies that CEDE & CO. is the registered owner of the Notional Amount of Taxable Trust Units evidenced by this Certificate. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Trust Agreement and Standard Terms referred to below and the Trust Agreement contains rules as to construction that shall be applicable herein.

The Trust was created pursuant to a Trust Agreement (the “Trust Agreement”) dated as of ~~[•]~~February 12, 2019, by and among Corporación del Fondo de Interès Apremiarte de Puerto Rico, whose name in English is PUERTO RICO SALES TAX FINANCING CORPORATION (“COFINA” or the “Depositor”), NATIONAL PUBLIC FINANCE GUARANTEE CORPORATION (“National”), U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION as trustee (the “Trustee”) and U.S. BANK TRUST NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as Delaware trustee (the “Delaware Trustee” which term includes any successor under the Trust Agreement and together with the Trustee, collectively the “Trustees”), and the Standard Terms to Trust Agreement, dated as of ~~[•]~~February 12, 2019 (the “Standard Terms”), a summary of certain of the pertinent provisions of which is set forth hereinafter. This Certificate is issued under and is subject to the terms, provisions and conditions of the Trust Agreement, to which Trust Agreement the Holder of this Certificate by virtue of its acceptance hereof assents and by which such Holder is bound. Distributions on this Certificate shall be made by the Paying Agent under the Trust Agreement.

This Certificate is issued under the Trust Agreement to which reference is hereby made for a statement of the respective rights thereunder of the Depositor, the Trustees, National and the Holder of the Certificate and the terms upon which the Certificate is executed and delivered.

This Certificate does not bear interest. Distributions on this Certificate represent a combination of certain interest and principal payments made on the New COFINA Bonds issued as non-tax-exempt for federal income tax purposes and certain other payments which have been assigned or contributed to the Trust Estate and may vary from period to period. Each such Distribution shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Holder's pro rata share of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) as of the date such Distribution (calculated in accordance with the Trust Agreement), in an amount equal to the pro rata share of such Distribution as set forth in the Standard Terms.

In certain circumstances, National may instruct the Trustee in writing to sell the New COFINA Bonds (the "Subject Bonds") underlying the Units for cash (a "Bond Sale"). The Holder of this Certificate shall have the option to elect to receive either (i) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the "Bond Election") or in lieu thereof (ii) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds ("Cash Proceeds") from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), as set forth in the Standard Terms.

This Certificate is not subject to redemption by the Trust and is not subject to repurchase by the Trust at the option of the Holder of this Certificate.

The Holder, by its acceptance of this Certificate, agrees that it will look solely to the funds allocated pursuant to the Trust Agreement for distribution hereunder and that none of the Trustee or the Paying Agent in their individual capacities nor the Depositor is personally liable to such Holder for any amount payable under this Certificate or the Trust Agreement, subject in the case of the Trustee to any liability under the Trust Agreement, provided that the foregoing shall not prevent the Holder from appearing or litigating any such proceeding after it has been instituted.

The Holder, by its acceptance of this Certificate hereby agrees that (i) the Trust Agreement is executed and delivered by U.S. Bank National Association, not individually or personally, but solely as Trustee in the exercise of the powers and authority conferred upon and vested in it, and pursuant to instructions set forth therein, (ii) each of the representations, undertakings and agreements herein made on the part of the Trustee or the Trust is made and intended not as personal representations, undertakings or agreements of U.S. Bank National Association, (iii) nothing herein contained shall be construed as creating or imposing any liability upon U.S. Bank National Association, individually or personally, or the Depositor to perform any covenant, either express or implied, contained herein, all such liability, if any, is hereby expressly waived by the parties hereto and by any Person claiming by, through or under the parties hereto and such waiver shall bind any third party making a claim by or through one of the parties hereto, and (iv) under no circumstances shall U.S. Bank National Association or the Depositor be personally liable for the payment of any indebtedness or expenses of the Trust, or be personally liable for the breach or failure of any obligation, representation, warranty or covenant made or undertaken by the Trust under the Trust Agreement.

The Holder, by its acceptance of this Certificate, covenants and agrees that it will not at any time institute against the Depositor, National or the Trust, or join in any institution against the Depositor, National or the Trust of, any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under any United States federal or state bankruptcy or similar law in connection with any obligations relating to this Certificate or the Trust Agreement.

Distributions on this Certificate will be made as provided in the Trust Agreement by the Paying Agent by wire transfer to such Holder without the presentation or surrender of this Certificate or the making of any notation hereon. Except as otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement and notwithstanding the above, the final distribution on this Certificate will be made after due notice by the Paying Agent of the pendency of such distribution and only upon presentation and surrender of this Certificate at the office or agency maintained by the Unit Registrar for that purpose.

Reference is hereby made to the further provisions of this Certificate set forth on the reverse hereof, which further provisions shall for all purposes have the same effect as if set forth at this place.

Unless this Certificate has been executed by the manual signature of an authorized officer of the Trustee and the certificate of authentication hereon shall have been executed by an authorized officer of the Unit Registrar, or an authenticating agent by manual signature, this Certificate shall not entitle the Holder hereof to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose.

THIS CERTIFICATE SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO ITS CONFLICT OF LAWS PROVISIONS, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

REVERSE OF TAXABLE TRUST UNIT CERTIFICATE

The Certificate does not represent an obligation of, or an interest in, National, the Trustee, or any Affiliates of each of them and no recourse may be had against any such parties or their assets, except as expressly set forth or contemplated herein or in the Trust Agreement. In addition, this Certificate is not guaranteed by any governmental agency or instrumentality and is limited in right of payment to certain collections and recoveries with respect to the Trust Estate, all as more specifically set forth herein and under the Trust Agreement. A copy of the Trust Agreement may be examined by any Holder upon written request during normal business hours at the principal office of the Trustee and at such other places, if any, designated by the Trustee.

The Trust Agreement and the Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and the Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

- a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;
- b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;
- c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;
- d) amend Section 9.01 of the Standard Terms without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;
- e) adversely affect in any other respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in a), b), or c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by outstanding Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;
- f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by outstanding Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

- g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

As provided in the Trust Agreement and subject to certain limitations therein set forth, including the limitations set forth in Article V of the Standard Terms, the transfer of this Certificate is registrable in the Certificate Register upon the surrendering of this Certificate for registration of transfer at the offices or agencies of the Unit Registrar, accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Unit Registrar duly executed by the Holder hereof or such Holder's attorney duly authorized in writing, and thereupon a new Certificate will be issued to the designated transferee. The initial Unit Registrar appointed under the Trust Agreement is the Trustee.

No service charge will be made for any such registration of transfer or exchange, but the Trustee or the Unit Registrar may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge payable in connection therewith or any expense incurred thereby.

The Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Unit Registrar and any agent of the Trustee, the Paying Agent, or the Unit Registrar may treat the Holder hereof as the owner hereof for all purposes, and none of the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Unit Registrar or any such agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

The obligations and responsibilities created by the Trust Agreement and the Trust shall terminate upon the payment to the Holders of the Certificates of all amounts required to be paid to them pursuant to the Trust Agreement, the disposition of all property held as part of the Trust Estate and payment of any costs, expenses and indemnities due and owing to the Trustees under the Trust Agreement.

Taxable Trust Unit Certificate No. ~~---~~1 Maturity Date: August 1,

Notional Amount: ~~-----~~$42,657,538.00

CUSIP #: ~~[•]~~19237HAA5

ISIN #: US19237HAA59

Each Taxable Trust Unit represented by this Certificate is one of a duly authorized issue of Certificates designated as the Taxable Trust Units (herein collectively called the “Units”), issued in authorized denominations of $1.00 and $1.00 increments thereof, and representing a beneficial ownership interest in a portion (described below) of the Trust Estate created by the Trust Agreement referred to below.

Defined terms not otherwise defined in this Certificate shall have the meaning set forth in the Trust Agreement.

Each Unit consists of (in the same Notional Amount): (A) one Taxable Trust Certificate, which in turn represents an undivided beneficial ownership interest in the Taxable Bond Account created under the Trust Agreement, and (B) one Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation), which in turn represents an undivided beneficial ownership interest in the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation).

This certifies that CEDE & CO. is the registered owner of the Notional Amount of Taxable Trust Units evidenced by this Certificate. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Trust Agreement and Standard Terms referred to below and the Trust Agreement contains rules as to construction that shall be applicable herein.

The Trust was created pursuant to a Trust Agreement (the “Trust Agreement”) dated as of ~~[•]~~February 12, 2019, by and among Corporación del Fondo de Interès Apremiarte de Puerto Rico, whose name in English is PUERTO RICO SALES TAX FINANCING CORPORATION (“COFINA” or the “Depositor”), NATIONAL PUBLIC FINANCE GUARANTEE CORPORATION (“National”), U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION as trustee (the “Trustee”) and U.S. BANK TRUST NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as Delaware trustee (the “Delaware Trustee” which term includes any successor under the Trust Agreement and together with the Trustee, collectively the “Trustees”), and the Standard Terms to Trust Agreement, dated as of ~~[•]~~February 12, 2019 (the “Standard Terms”), a summary of certain of the pertinent provisions of which is set forth hereinafter. This Certificate is issued under and is subject to the terms, provisions and conditions of the Trust Agreement, to which Trust Agreement the Holder of this Certificate by virtue of its acceptance hereof assents and by which such Holder is bound. Distributions on this Certificate shall be made by the Paying Agent under the Trust Agreement.

This Certificate is issued under the Trust Agreement to which reference is hereby made for a statement of the respective rights thereunder of the Depositor, the Trustees, National and the Holder of the Certificate and the terms upon which the Certificate is executed and delivered.

This Certificate does not bear interest. Distributions on this Certificate represent a combination of certain interest and principal payments made on the New COFINA Bonds issued as non-tax-exempt for federal income tax purposes and certain other payments which have been assigned or contributed to the Trust Estate and may vary from period to period. Each such Distribution shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Holder's pro rata share of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) as of the date such Distribution (calculated in accordance with the Trust Agreement), in an amount equal to the pro rata share of such Distribution as set forth in the Standard Terms.

In certain circumstances, National may instruct the Trustee in writing to sell the New COFINA Bonds (the "Subject Bonds") underlying the Units for cash (a "Bond Sale"). The Holder of this Certificate shall have the option to elect to receive either (i) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the "Bond Election") or in lieu thereof (ii) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds ("Cash Proceeds") from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), as set forth in the Standard Terms.

This Certificate is not subject to redemption by the Trust and is not subject to repurchase by the Trust at the option of the Holder of this Certificate.

The Holder, by its acceptance of this Certificate, agrees that it will look solely to the funds allocated pursuant to the Trust Agreement for distribution hereunder and that none of the Trustee or the Paying Agent in their individual capacities nor the Depositor is personally liable to such Holder for any amount payable under this Certificate or the Trust Agreement, subject in the case of the Trustee to any liability under the Trust Agreement, provided that the foregoing shall not prevent the Holder from appearing or litigating any such proceeding after it has been instituted.

The Holder, by its acceptance of this Certificate hereby agrees that (i) the Trust Agreement is executed and delivered by U.S. Bank National Association, not individually or personally, but solely as Trustee in the exercise of the powers and authority conferred upon and vested in it, and pursuant to instructions set forth therein, (ii) each of the representations, undertakings and agreements herein made on the part of the Trustee or the Trust is made and intended not as personal representations, undertakings or agreements of U.S. Bank National Association, (iii) nothing herein contained shall be construed as creating or imposing any liability upon U.S. Bank National Association, individually or personally, or the Depositor to perform any covenant, either express or implied, contained herein, all such liability, if any, is hereby expressly waived by the parties hereto and by any Person claiming by, through or under the parties hereto and such waiver shall bind any third party making a claim by or through one of the parties hereto, and (iv) under no circumstances shall U.S. Bank National Association or the Depositor be personally liable for the payment of any indebtedness or expenses of the Trust, or be personally liable for the breach or failure of any obligation, representation, warranty or covenant made or undertaken by the Trust under the Trust Agreement.

The Holder, by its acceptance of this Certificate, covenants and agrees that it will not at any time institute against the Depositor, National or the Trust, or join in any institution against the Depositor, National or the Trust of, any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under any United States federal or state bankruptcy or similar law in connection with any obligations relating to this Certificate or the Trust Agreement.

Distributions on this Certificate will be made as provided in the Trust Agreement by the Paying Agent by wire transfer to such Holder without the presentation or surrender of this Certificate or the making of any notation hereon. Except as otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement and notwithstanding the above, the final distribution on this Certificate will be made after due notice by the Paying Agent of the pendency of such distribution and only upon presentation and surrender of this Certificate at the office or agency maintained by the Unit Registrar for that purpose.

Reference is hereby made to the further provisions of this Certificate set forth on the reverse hereof, which further provisions shall for all purposes have the same effect as if set forth at this place.

Unless this Certificate has been executed by the manual signature of an authorized officer of the Trustee and the certificate of authentication hereon shall have been executed by an authorized officer of the Unit Registrar, or an authenticating agent by manual signature, this Certificate shall not entitle the Holder hereof to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose.

THIS CERTIFICATE SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO ITS CONFLICT OF LAWS PROVISIONS, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Trustee, on behalf of the Trust and not in its individual capacity, has caused this Certificate to be duly executed.

REVERSE OF TAXABLE TRUST UNIT CERTIFICATE

The Certificate does not represent an obligation of, or an interest in, National, the Trustee, or any Affiliates of each of them and no recourse may be had against any such parties or their assets, except as expressly set forth or contemplated herein or in the Trust Agreement. In addition, this Certificate is not guaranteed by any governmental agency or instrumentality and is limited in right of payment to certain collections and recoveries with respect to the Trust Estate, all as more specifically set forth herein and under the Trust Agreement. A copy of the Trust Agreement may be examined by any Holder upon written request during normal business hours at the principal office of the Trustee and at such other places, if any, designated by the Trustee.

The Trust Agreement and the Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and the Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

- a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;
- b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;
- c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;
- d) amend Section 9.01 of the Standard Terms without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;
- e) adversely affect in any other respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in a), b), or c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by outstanding Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;
- f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by outstanding Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

- g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

As provided in the Trust Agreement and subject to certain limitations therein set forth, including the limitations set forth in Article V of the Standard Terms, the transfer of this Certificate is registrable in the Certificate Register upon the surrendering of this Certificate for registration of transfer at the offices or agencies of the Unit Registrar, accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Unit Registrar duly executed by the Holder hereof or such Holder's attorney duly authorized in writing, and thereupon a new Certificate will be issued to the designated transferee. The initial Unit Registrar appointed under the Trust Agreement is the Trustee.

No service charge will be made for any such registration of transfer or exchange, but the Trustee or the Unit Registrar may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge payable in connection therewith or any expense incurred thereby.

The Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Unit Registrar and any agent of the Trustee, the Paying Agent, or the Unit Registrar may treat the Holder hereof as the owner hereof for all purposes, and none of the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Unit Registrar or any such agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

The obligations and responsibilities created by the Trust Agreement and the Trust shall terminate upon the payment to the Holders of the Certificates of all amounts required to be paid to them pursuant to the Trust Agreement, the disposition of all property held as part of the Trust Estate and payment of any costs, expenses and indemnities due and owing to the Trustees under the Trust Agreement.

Thereafter, each of the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) and the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt) shall accrete at the same annual interest rate (i.e., 4.95995776726681%) implied in the definition of Compounded Amount for the Original COFINA Bonds (the “Implied Rate”) and shall compound semi-annually in arrears, assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months, using the following formula: $\text{new Compounded Amount (as of a new date)} = \text{original Compounded Amount} \times (1 + \text{Implied Rate}/2)^{(\text{Days}/180)}$, where “Days” is the number of days (using the 360-day year/twelve 30-day months counting convention) from (and including) the date of the original Compounded Amount to (but excluding) the new date as of which the new Compounded Amount is being calculated. Each Compounded Amount shall be calculated by the Trustee and published on a monthly basis as set forth in Section 4.01. Any published calculations of the Compounded

Such existing Original COFINA Bonds shall not form the basis for the assertion of any Claim against COFINA or Reorganized COFINA. The National Insurance Policies (other than as satisfied in accordance with these Standard Terms) shall be preserved and remain in full force and effect; and

(f) upon receipt of the National Consummation Costs, National shall, on behalf of each of the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders, deposit the National Consummation Costs into the Trust on a pro rata basis.

Section 2.02. Acceptance by the Trustee.

(a) By its execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee acknowledges and declares that it will hold or has agreed to hold all documents or instruments delivered to it or received by it from time to time with respect to the Trust Assets and all other assets included in the definition of Trust Estate in such Trust Agreement, in each case in trust for the exclusive use and benefit of all present and future Unitholders. The Trustee represents and warrants that, except as expressly permitted by the Trust Agreement, (i) it has not and will not, in any capacity, assert any claim or interest in the Trust Estate and will hold (or its agent will hold) such Trust Estate and the proceeds thereof in trust pursuant to the terms of the Trust Agreement, and (ii) it has not encumbered or transferred its right, title or interest in the Trust Estate.

(b) With respect to the COFINA Bonds, the Trustee shall, on the Closing Date, deliver to the Depositor a certification substantially in the form of Exhibit D to the Trust Agreement certifying that it is either (i) in possession of a certificate evidencing the COFINA Bonds, or (ii) it has received confirmation from a depository of such COFINA Bonds or a direct or indirect participant thereof that the COFINA Bonds acquired by the Trust on such Closing Date are beneficially owned by the Trust for the benefit of the Unitholders.

(c) Except as specifically provided herein, the Trustee shall not sell, pledge or assign any interest in the Trust Estate.

Section 2.03. Purpose, Activities of the Trust.

It is the intention of the parties hereto that the Trust shall not engage in any business or activities other than certain non-business activities in connection with, or relating to the following:

Section 2.04. Limitations of the Trust.

- (a) Except as otherwise provided herein, the affairs of the Trust will be managed by or under the direction of the Trustee. Neither COFINA or National nor any of their respective Affiliates will have authority to act for, or to assume any obligation or responsibility on behalf of, the Trust or the Trustee in its capacity as Trustee;

- (c) The Trust will provide for its own operating expenses and liabilities from the Trust Assets. General overhead and administrative expenses of the Trust will not be charged or otherwise allocated to COFINA or National or their respective Affiliates (except indirectly, insofar as (i) National may own certain Trust Units and (ii) certain expenses of the Trust shall not reduce the Compounded Amount);

(d) All oral and written communications, including letters, invoices, contracts, statements and applications, will be made solely in the name of the Trust if related to the Trust;

(e) There will be no guarantees made by the Trust with respect to obligations of COFINA or National or their respective Affiliates. (f) The Trust will act solely in its own name or the Trustee's on its behalf and through its or the Trustee's duly authorized officers or agents in the conduct of its activities. The Trust will not: (i) operate or purport to operate as an integrated, single economic unit with respect to COFINA or National or any other affiliated or unaffiliated entity; (ii) seek or obtain credit or incur any obligation to any third party based upon the assets of COFINA or National or their respective Affiliates; or (iii) induce any such third party to reasonably rely on the creditworthiness of COFINA or National or any other affiliated or unaffiliated entity in its dealings with the Trust;

(g) The Trust will maintain a Delaware Trustee with its office in the State of Delaware;

(h) The Trust will not engage in any transaction with an affiliate on any terms other than would be obtained in an arm's-length transaction with a non-Affiliate.

Section 2.05. Voting Rights.

(a) National shall be deemed the sole holder of the Voting Rights with respect to the New COFINA Bonds held by the Trust, unless National: (i) is in default under any National Insurance Policy; or (ii) has become subject to, or has agreed to become subject to, regulatory, supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings (each of the condition in clauses (i) and (ii), a "Voting Rights Condition").

(b) Should any of the Voting Rights Conditions arise, the Voting Rights in respect of the New COFINA Bonds held by the Trust will be deemed to be held on a pro rata basis by the applicable Unitholders with respect to which such New COFINA Bonds relate and the Trustee shall take all actions reasonably necessary to facilitate such Unitholders' exercise of the Voting Rights.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION OF THE TRUST

Section 3.01. Accounts.

The Trustee shall establish and maintain the following accounts for the Trust to be held in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders:

(a) Tax-Exempt Bond Account. An account into which the Trustee shall deposit the Tax-Exempt COFINA Bonds (or any other securities, monies, proceeds or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Tax-Exempt Bond Account”);

(b) Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Tax-Exempt Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation)”);

(c) Taxable Bond Account. An account into which the Trustee shall deposit Taxable COFINA Bonds (or any other securities, monies, proceeds or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Taxable Bond Account”); and

(d) Stub Account (Taxable Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Taxable Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Taxable Allocation)”).

Section 3.02. Distributions.

(a) Tax-Exempt Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Tax-Exempt Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA

Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(b) Taxable Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Taxable Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Taxable Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(c) Other Distributions to All Unitholders. The Trustee shall be required to and shall make the following distributions to all Unitholders on a pro rata “pass-through” basis promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, net of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution:

- (i) Any National Consummation Costs deposited in the Trust; and
- (ii) Any COFINA Plan Distributions received by the Trustee.

Section 3.03. Sale of New COFINA Bonds.

(a) At any time and from time to time prior to the Maturity Date, so long as National (i) is not in default under the National Insurance Policies and (ii) has not agreed to and has not become subject to regulatory supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings, National shall have the right to instruct the Trustee to sell any New COFINA Bonds of any series, in a minimum aggregate principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, a minimum aggregate current compounded amount) of $5,000,000 (taking into account for such minimum, all concurrent sales of such series of New COFINA Bonds in the COFINA National Custodial Trusts) (it being understood that such minimum shall not be applicable if all New COFINA Bonds of such series held as part of the Trust Assets are included in such sale) (or any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Subject Bonds”) that are part of the Trust Assets for cash (a “Bond Sale”). Prior to any Bond Sale, National will notify the Trustee of the intended Bond Sale and will direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a sale notice (the “Sale Notice”) to all applicable Unitholders (i.e. Tax-Exempt Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or Taxable Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Taxable Bond Account).

(b) The Sale Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Subject Bonds, the principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, current compounded amount) of Subject Bonds to be sold, the applicable Target Price and Floor Price and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each applicable Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the “Bond Election”) or in lieu thereof (B) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds (“Cash Proceeds”) from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), provided the weighted average price obtainable for the Subject Bonds (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) is equal to or greater than the Floor Price (the “Cash Election” and, together with the Bond Election, the “Sale Elections”). Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders’ aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $17,010 and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $3,969 incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and $5,670 fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $17,010 on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates (Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable

pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the “Maturity Notice”) in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the “Insured Amount Election”) or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the “Trust Assets Election” and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the “Maturity Election”). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the “Maturity Notice Period”).

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a “Notice of Nonpayment”), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and (ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice “from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made” (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a “Notice of Nonpayment” (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of “Compounded Amount” included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive “evidence of the Bondholder’s right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment.”

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust

ARTICLE IV

REPORTING/REMITTING TO SECURITYHOLDERS

Section 4.01. Statements to Unitholders.

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(a) With respect to the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and the Taxable Bond Account:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(ii) the principal amount (or accreted amount, as applicable) as of the month end of each CUSIP of New COFINA Bonds held in each such account (or any other securities or property received in respect thereof or in exchange therefor) (on an aggregate and per unit basis).

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

(c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.

(d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the "Trustee Costs"). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee's grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the "Extraordinary Expenses"). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor

Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

Section 6.07. Resignation and Removal of the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite

Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

ARTICLE VII

TERMINATION OF TRUST

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an "Adverse Trust Event"), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the

Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

(a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;

(b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;

(e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;

(f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA

Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(a) without the prior written consent of any Unitholder, consent or affirmatively vote on behalf of such Unitholder on any matter that would: (i) terminate the Trust, (ii) except as expressly provided herein, sell some or all of the assets of the Trust; (iii) compromise, waive, sell, forfeit, or otherwise diminish the rights of the Trust, the Trustee, or the Unitholders under any National Insurance Policy; and

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. If the Delaware Trustee is not U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Delaware Trustee, and (c) in the case of the Depositor, Roberto Sánchez Vilella (Minillas) Government Center de Diego Ave. Stop 22 San Juan, PR 00907, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Depositor. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and conclusive in favor of the Trustee. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner that the Trustee deems sufficient. The ownership of Trust Units shall be proved by the Unit Register.

Section 9.08. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in these Standard Terms are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of these Standard Terms for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a) of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act that the Trust have at least one trustee with a principal place of business in the State of Delaware. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the Delaware Trustee shall have none of the duties or liabilities of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(b) The duties of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State which the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or the Unitholders, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. No resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee shall be effective except upon the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee that (i) is reasonably acceptable to National, (ii) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and (iii) is qualified to do business in the State of Delaware. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

ANNEX I

INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS

(i) The Trust shall indemnify each of the Trustees or any predecessor Trustees and their agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, damage, claims, liability or expense, including taxes (other than taxes based upon, measured by or determined by the income of the Trustees), arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Trust hereunder, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim asserted by any other Person or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder, except to the extent that such loss, damage, claim, liability or expense is due to its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(ii) The Trustees shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Trust shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustees may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Trust if in the reasonable judgement of the Trustees (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustees that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Trust or if all parties commonly represented do not agree as to the action (or inaction) of counsel.

Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(b) Taxable Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Taxable Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Taxable Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(c) Other Distributions to All Unitholders. The Trustee shall be required to and shall make the following distributions to all Unitholders on a pro rata “pass-through” basis promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, net of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution:

- (i) Any National Consummation Costs deposited in the Trust; and
- (ii) Any COFINA Plan Distributions received by the Trustee.

Section 3.03. Sale of New COFINA Bonds.

(a) At any time and from time to time prior to the Maturity Date, so long as National (i) is not in default under the National Insurance Policies and (ii) has not agreed to and has not become subject to regulatory supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings, National shall have the right to instruct the Trustee to sell any New COFINA Bonds of any series, in a minimum aggregate principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, a minimum aggregate current compounded amount) of $5,000,000 (taking into account for such minimum, all concurrent sales of such series of New COFINA Bonds in the COFINA National Custodial Trusts) (it being understood that such minimum shall not be applicable if all New COFINA Bonds of such series held as part of the Trust Assets are included in such sale) (or any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Subject Bonds”) that are part of the Trust Assets for cash (a “Bond Sale”). Prior to any Bond Sale, National will notify the Trustee of the intended Bond Sale and will direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a sale notice (the “Sale Notice”) to all applicable Unitholders (i.e. Tax-Exempt Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or Taxable Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Taxable Bond Account).

(b) The Sale Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Subject Bonds, the principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, current compounded amount) of Subject Bonds to be sold, the applicable Target Price and Floor Price and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each applicable Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the “Bond Election”) or in lieu thereof (B) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds (“Cash Proceeds”) from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), provided the weighted average price obtainable for the Subject Bonds (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) is equal to or greater than the Floor Price (the “Cash Election” and, together with the Bond Election, the “Sale Elections”). Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders’ aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $95,733 and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $22,338 incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and $31,911 fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $95,733 on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates (Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable

pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the “Maturity Notice”) in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the “Insured Amount Election”) or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the “Trust Assets Election” and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the “Maturity Election”). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the “Maturity Notice Period”).

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a “Notice of Nonpayment”), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and (ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice “from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made” (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a “Notice of Nonpayment” (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of “Compounded Amount” included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive “evidence of the Bondholder’s right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment.”

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust

REPORTING/REMITTING TO SECURITYHOLDERS

Section 4.01. Statements to Unitholders.

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(a) With respect to the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and the Taxable Bond Account:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(ii) the principal amount (or accreted amount, as applicable) as of the month end of each CUSIP of New COFINA Bonds held in each such account (or any other securities or property received in respect thereof or in exchange therefor) (on an aggregate and per unit basis).

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

(c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.

(d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the "Trustee Costs"). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee's grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the "Extraordinary Expenses"). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor

Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

Section 6.07. Resignation and Removal of the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite

Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.10. Reserved.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

TERMINATION OF TRUST

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an "Adverse Trust Event"), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the

Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

(a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;

(b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;

(e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;

(f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

(g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA

Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(a) without the prior written consent of any Unitholder, consent or affirmatively vote on behalf of such Unitholder on any matter that would: (i) terminate the Trust, (ii) except as expressly provided herein, sell some or all of the assets of the Trust; (iii) compromise, waive, sell, forfeit, or otherwise diminish the rights of the Trust, the Trustee, or the Unitholders under any National Insurance Policy; and

A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a) of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act that the Trust have at least one trustee with a principal place of business in the State of Delaware. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

ANNEX I

(ii) The Trustees shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Trust shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustees may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Trust if in the reasonable judgement of the Trustees (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustees that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Trust or if all parties commonly represented do not agree as to the action (or inaction) of counsel.

Thereafter, each of the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) and the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt) shall accrete at the same annual interest rate (i.e., 4.98995657736692%) implied in the definition of Compounded Amount for the Original COFINA Bonds (the “Implied Rate”) and shall compound semi-annually in arrears, assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months, using the following formula: $\text{new Compounded Amount (as of a new date)} = \text{original Compounded Amount} \times (1 + \text{Implied Rate}/2)^{(\text{Days}/180)}$, where “Days” is the number of days (using the 360-day year/twelve 30-day months counting convention) from (and including) the date of the original Compounded Amount to (but excluding) the new date as of which the new Compounded Amount is being calculated. If within 30 days of the publication of such calculations, National or any Unitholder objects to such calculations, National or such Unitholder shall set forth in writing its objection, including the basis for such objection and the calculations which it believes to be correct, and if the Trustee agrees that its original calculations were in error the Trustee shall re-publish the calculations (allowing for objections as provided above). If the Trustee and either National or such Unitholder fail to reach agreement as to the correct calculations, then National or such Unitholder shall be deemed to reserve its rights, either at the Maturity Date or earlier, to pursue any available legal remedy to attempt to enforce or clarify its rights or obligations under this agreement based on its alternative calculations; provided that, if National or such Unitholder has not taken any action pursuant to the foregoing reservation of rights to pursue any available legal remedy and no formal legal proceeding is pending pursuant thereto at or prior to the Maturity Date or, if earlier, any distribution under Section 3.05, if any Compounded Amount is reduced to zero (and without prejudice to National's ability in any event to make a provisional payment of amounts under the National Insurance Policy), then the Trustee's calculation of the applicable Compounded Amount shall be final and binding.

(a) At any time and from time to time prior to the Maturity Date, so long as National (i) is not in default under the National Insurance Policies and (ii) has not agreed to and has not become subject to regulatory supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings, National shall have the right to instruct the Trustee to sell any New COFINA Bonds of any series, in a minimum aggregate principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, a minimum aggregate current compounded amount) of $5,000,000 (taking into account for such minimum, all concurrent sales of such series of New COFINA Bonds in the COFINA National Custodial Trusts) (it being understood that such minimum shall not be applicable if all New COFINA Bonds of such series held as part of the Trust Assets are included in such sale) (or any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Subject Bonds”) that are part of the Trust Assets for cash (a “Bond Sale”). Prior to any Bond Sale, National will notify the Trustee of the intended Bond Sale and will direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a sale notice (the “Sale Notice”) to all applicable Unitholders (i.e. Tax-Exempt Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or Taxable Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Taxable Bond Account).

(b) The Sale Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Subject Bonds, the principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, current compounded amount) of Subject Bonds to be sold, the applicable Target Price and Floor Price and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each applicable Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the “Bond Election”) or in lieu thereof (B) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds (“Cash Proceeds”) from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), provided the weighted average price obtainable for the Subject Bonds (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) is equal to or greater than the Floor Price (the “Cash Election” and, together with the Bond Election, the “Sale Elections”). Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders’ aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $122,933 and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $28,684 incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and $40,978 fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $122,933 on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates (Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable

pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the "Maturity Notice") in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the "Insured Amount Election") or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the "Trust Assets Election" and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the "Maturity Election"). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the "Maturity Notice Period").

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a "Notice of Nonpayment"), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and (ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice "from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made" (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a "Notice of Nonpayment" (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of "Compounded Amount" included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive "evidence of the Bondholder's right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment."

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust

ARTICLE IV

REPORTING/REMITTING TO SECURITYHOLDERS

Section 4.01. Statements to Unitholders.

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(a) With respect to the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and the Taxable Bond Account:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(ii) the principal amount (or accreted amount, as applicable) as of the month end of each CUSIP of New COFINA Bonds held in each such account (or any other securities or property received in respect thereof or in exchange therefor) (on an aggregate and per unit basis).

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

(c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.

(d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the "Trustee Costs"). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee's grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the "Extraordinary Expenses"). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor

Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

Section 6.07. Resignation and Removal of the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite

Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.10. Reserved.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

TERMINATION OF TRUST

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an "Adverse Trust Event"), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the

Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

(a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;

(b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;

(e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;

(f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

(g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA

Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. If the Trustee is not U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Trustee, (b) in the case of the Delaware Trustee, if the Delaware Trustee is U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address for the Delaware Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10025. If the Delaware Trustee is not U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Delaware Trustee, and (c) in the case of the Depositor, Roberto Sánchez Vilella (Minillas) Government Center de Diego Ave. Stop 22 San Juan, PR 00907, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Depositor. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and conclusive in favor of the Trustee. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner that the Trustee deems sufficient. The ownership of Trust Units shall be proved by the Unit Register.

Section 9.08. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in these Standard Terms are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of these Standard Terms for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a) of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act that the Trust have at least one trustee with a principal place of business in the State of Delaware. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the Delaware Trustee shall have none of the duties or liabilities of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(b) The duties of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State which the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or the Unitholders, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. No resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee shall be effective except upon the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee that (i) is reasonably acceptable to National, (ii) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and (iii) is qualified to do business in the State of Delaware. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS

Thereafter, each of the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) and the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt) shall accrete at the same annual interest rate (i.e., 5.00998210024362%) implied in the definition of Compounded Amount for the Original COFINA Bonds (the “Implied Rate”) and shall compound semi-annually in arrears, assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months, using the following formula: $\text{new Compounded Amount (as of a new date)} = \text{original Compounded Amount} \times (1 + \text{Implied Rate}/2)^{(\text{Days}/180)}$, where “Days” is the number of days (using the 360-day year/twelve 30-day months counting convention) from (and including) the date of the original Compounded Amount to (but excluding) the new date as of which the new Compounded Amount is being calculated. (b) Should any of the Voting Rights Conditions arise, the Voting Rights in respect of the New COFINA Bonds held by the Trust will be deemed to be held on a pro rata basis by the applicable Unitholders with respect to which such New COFINA Bonds relate and the Trustee shall take all actions reasonably necessary to facilitate such Unitholders' exercise of the Voting Rights.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION OF THE TRUST

The Trustee shall establish and maintain the following accounts for the Trust to be held in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders:

(b) Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Tax-Exempt Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation)”);

(c) Taxable Bond Account. An account into which the Trustee shall deposit Taxable COFINA Bonds (or any other securities, monies, proceeds or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Taxable Bond Account”); and

(d) Stub Account (Taxable Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Taxable Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Taxable Allocation)”).

Section 3.02. Distributions.

(a) Tax-Exempt Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Tax-Exempt Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA

Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(b) Taxable Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Taxable Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Taxable Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(c) Other Distributions to All Unitholders. The Trustee shall be required to and shall make the following distributions to all Unitholders on a pro rata “pass-through” basis promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, net of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution:

- (i) Any National Consummation Costs deposited in the Trust; and
- (ii) Any COFINA Plan Distributions received by the Trustee.

Section 3.03. Sale of New COFINA Bonds.

(a) At any time and from time to time prior to the Maturity Date, so long as National (i) is not in default under the National Insurance Policies and (ii) has not agreed to and has not become subject to regulatory supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings, National shall have the right to instruct the Trustee to sell any New COFINA Bonds of any series, in a minimum aggregate principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, a minimum aggregate current compounded amount) of $5,000,000 (taking into account for such minimum, all concurrent sales of such series of New COFINA Bonds in the COFINA National Custodial Trusts) (it being understood that such minimum shall not be applicable if all New COFINA Bonds of such series held as part of the Trust Assets are included in such sale) (or any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Subject Bonds”) that are part of the Trust Assets for cash (a “Bond Sale”). Prior to any Bond Sale, National will notify the Trustee of the intended Bond Sale and will direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a sale notice (the “Sale Notice”) to all applicable Unitholders (i.e. Tax-Exempt Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or Taxable Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Taxable Bond Account).

(b) The Sale Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Subject Bonds, the principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, current compounded amount) of Subject Bonds to be sold, the applicable Target Price and Floor Price and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each applicable Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the “Bond Election”) or in lieu thereof (B) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds (“Cash Proceeds”) from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), provided the weighted average price obtainable for the Subject Bonds (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) is equal to or greater than the Floor Price (the “Cash Election” and, together with the Bond Election, the “Sale Elections”). Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders’ aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $138,294 and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $32,269 incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and $46,098 fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $138,294 on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates (Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable

pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the “Maturity Notice”) in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the “Insured Amount Election”) or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the “Trust Assets Election” and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the “Maturity Election”). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the “Maturity Notice Period”).

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a “Notice of Nonpayment”), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and (ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice “from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made” (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a “Notice of Nonpayment” (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of “Compounded Amount” included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive “evidence of the Bondholder’s right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment.”

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust

ARTICLE IV

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

(c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.

(d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the "Trustee Costs"). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee's grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the "Extraordinary Expenses"). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor

Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite

Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.10. Reserved.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an "Adverse Trust Event"), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the

Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

(a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;

(b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;

(e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;

(f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

(g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA

Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. If the Trustee is not U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Trustee, (b) in the case of the Delaware Trustee, if the Delaware Trustee is U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address for the Delaware Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10025. If the Delaware Trustee is not U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Delaware Trustee, and (c) in the case of the Depositor, Roberto Sánchez Vilella (Minillas) Government Center de Diego Ave. Stop 22 San Juan, PR 00907, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Depositor. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and conclusive in favor of the Trustee. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner that the Trustee deems sufficient. The ownership of Trust Units shall be proved by the Unit Register.

Section 9.08. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in these Standard Terms are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of these Standard Terms for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a) of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act that the Trust have at least one trustee with a principal place of business in the State of Delaware. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the Delaware Trustee shall have none of the duties or liabilities of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(b) The duties of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State which the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or the Unitholders, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. No resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee shall be effective except upon the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee that (i) is reasonably acceptable to National, (ii) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and (iii) is qualified to do business in the State of Delaware. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS

(i) The Trust shall indemnify each of the Trustees or any predecessor Trustees and their agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, damage, claims, liability or expense, including taxes (other than taxes based upon, measured by or determined by the income of the Trustees), arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Trust hereunder, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim asserted by any other Person or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder, except to the extent that such loss, damage, claim, liability or expense is due to its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(ii) The Trustees shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Trust shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustees may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Trust if in the reasonable judgement of the Trustees (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustees that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Trust or if all parties commonly represented do not agree as to the action (or inaction) of counsel.

Thereafter, each of the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) and the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt) shall accrete at the same annual interest rate (i.e., 5.03000489982162%) implied in the definition of Compounded Amount for the Original COFINA Bonds (the “Implied Rate”) and shall compound semi-annually in arrears, assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months, using the following formula: $\text{new Compounded Amount (as of a new date)} = \text{original Compounded Amount} \times (1 + \text{Implied Rate}/2)^{(\text{Days}/180)}$, where “Days” is the number of days (using the 360-day year/twelve 30-day months counting convention) from (and including) the date of the original Compounded Amount to (but excluding) the new date as of which the new Compounded Amount is being calculated.  - (k) make public disclosures on EMMA and similar means of distribution;
 - (l) make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services, to the extent available to the Trustee; and
 - (m) engage in those activities that are necessary, suitable or convenient to accomplish the foregoing or are incidental thereto or connected therewith.

Section 2.04. Limitations of the Trust.

- (a) Except as otherwise provided herein, the affairs of the Trust will be managed by or under the direction of the Trustee. Neither COFINA or National nor any of their respective Affiliates will have authority to act for, or to assume any obligation or responsibility on behalf of, the Trust or the Trustee in its capacity as Trustee;
- (b) The Trust will keep correct and complete books and records of accounts and minutes of the meetings and other proceedings of the Trust. Any such resolutions, agreements and other instruments will be continuously maintained by the Trustee as official records of the Trust;
- (c) The Trust will provide for its own operating expenses and liabilities from the Trust Assets. General overhead and administrative expenses of the Trust will not be charged or otherwise allocated to COFINA or National or their respective Affiliates (except indirectly, insofar as (i) National may own certain Trust Units and (ii) certain expenses of the Trust shall not reduce the Compounded Amount);

(d) All oral and written communications, including letters, invoices, contracts, statements and applications, will be made solely in the name of the Trust if related to the Trust;

(e) There will be no guarantees made by the Trust with respect to obligations of COFINA or National or their respective Affiliates. There will not be any indebtedness relating to borrowings or loans between the Trust and COFINA or National or their respective Affiliates; provided, that, National may own Trust Units;

(f) The Trust will act solely in its own name or the Trustee's on its behalf and through its or the Trustee's duly authorized officers or agents in the conduct of its activities. The Trust will not: (i) operate or purport to operate as an integrated, single economic unit with respect to COFINA or National or any other affiliated or unaffiliated entity; (ii) seek or obtain credit or incur any obligation to any third party based upon the assets of COFINA or National or their respective Affiliates; or (iii) induce any such third party to reasonably rely on the creditworthiness of COFINA or National or any other affiliated or unaffiliated entity in its dealings with the Trust;

(g) The Trust will maintain a Delaware Trustee with its office in the State of Delaware;

(h) The Trust will not engage in any transaction with an affiliate on any terms other than would be obtained in an arm's-length transaction with a non-Affiliate.

Section 2.05. Voting Rights.

(a) National shall be deemed the sole holder of the Voting Rights with respect to the New COFINA Bonds held by the Trust, unless National: (i) is in default under any National Insurance Policy; or (ii) has become subject to, or has agreed to become subject to, regulatory, supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings (each of the condition in clauses (i) and (ii), a "Voting Rights Condition").

(b) Should any of the Voting Rights Conditions arise, the Voting Rights in respect of the New COFINA Bonds held by the Trust will be deemed to be held on a pro rata basis by the applicable Unitholders with respect to which such New COFINA Bonds relate and the Trustee shall take all actions reasonably necessary to facilitate such Unitholders' exercise of the Voting Rights.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION OF THE TRUST

Section 3.01. Accounts.

The Trustee shall establish and maintain the following accounts for the Trust to be held in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders:

(a) Tax-Exempt Bond Account. An account into which the Trustee shall deposit the Tax-Exempt COFINA Bonds (or any other securities, monies, proceeds or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Tax-Exempt Bond Account”);

(b) Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Tax-Exempt Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation)”);

(c) Taxable Bond Account. An account into which the Trustee shall deposit Taxable COFINA Bonds (or any other securities, monies, proceeds or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Taxable Bond Account”); and

(d) Stub Account (Taxable Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Taxable Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Taxable Allocation)”).

Section 3.02. Distributions.

(a) Tax-Exempt Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Tax-Exempt Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA

Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(b) Taxable Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Taxable Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Taxable Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(c) Other Distributions to All Unitholders. The Trustee shall be required to and shall make the following distributions to all Unitholders on a pro rata “pass-through” basis promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, net of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution:

- (i) Any National Consummation Costs deposited in the Trust; and
- (ii) Any COFINA Plan Distributions received by the Trustee.

Section 3.03. Sale of New COFINA Bonds.

(a) At any time and from time to time prior to the Maturity Date, so long as National (i) is not in default under the National Insurance Policies and (ii) has not agreed to and has not become subject to regulatory supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings, National shall have the right to instruct the Trustee to sell any New COFINA Bonds of any series, in a minimum aggregate principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, a minimum aggregate current compounded amount) of $5,000,000 (taking into account for such minimum, all concurrent sales of such series of New COFINA Bonds in the COFINA National Custodial Trusts) (it being understood that such minimum shall not be applicable if all New COFINA Bonds of such series held as part of the Trust Assets are included in such sale) (or any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Subject Bonds”) that are part of the Trust Assets for cash (a “Bond Sale”). Prior to any Bond Sale, National will notify the Trustee of the intended Bond Sale and will direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a sale notice (the “Sale Notice”) to all applicable Unitholders (i.e. Tax-Exempt Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or Taxable Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Taxable Bond Account).

(b) The Sale Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Subject Bonds, the principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, current compounded amount) of Subject Bonds to be sold, the applicable Target Price and Floor Price and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each applicable Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the “Bond Election”) or in lieu thereof (B) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds (“Cash Proceeds”) from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), provided the weighted average price obtainable for the Subject Bonds (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) is equal to or greater than the Floor Price (the “Cash Election” and, together with the Bond Election, the “Sale Elections”). Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders’ aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $109,525 and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $25,556 incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and $36,508 fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $109,525 on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates (Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable

pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the "Maturity Notice") in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the "Insured Amount Election") or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the "Trust Assets Election" and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the "Maturity Election"). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the "Maturity Notice Period").

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a "Notice of Nonpayment"), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and (ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice "from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made" (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a "Notice of Nonpayment" (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of "Compounded Amount" included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive "evidence of the Bondholder's right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment."

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust

ARTICLE IV

REPORTING/REMITTING TO SECURITYHOLDERS

Section 4.01. Statements to Unitholders.

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(a) With respect to the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and the Taxable Bond Account:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(ii) the principal amount (or accreted amount, as applicable) as of the month end of each CUSIP of New COFINA Bonds held in each such account (or any other securities or property received in respect thereof or in exchange therefor) (on an aggregate and per unit basis).

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

(c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.

(d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the "Trustee Costs"). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee's grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the "Extraordinary Expenses"). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor

Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite

Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.10. Reserved.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an "Adverse Trust Event"), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the

Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

(a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;

(b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;

(e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;

(f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

(g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA

Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. If the Trustee is not U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Trustee, (b) in the case of the Delaware Trustee, if the Delaware Trustee is U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address for the Delaware Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10025. If the Delaware Trustee is not U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Delaware Trustee, and (c) in the case of the Depositor, Roberto Sánchez Vilella (Minillas) Government Center de Diego Ave. Stop 22 San Juan, PR 00907, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Depositor. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and conclusive in favor of the Trustee. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner that the Trustee deems sufficient. The ownership of Trust Units shall be proved by the Unit Register.

Section 9.08. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in these Standard Terms are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of these Standard Terms for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a) of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act that the Trust have at least one trustee with a principal place of business in the State of Delaware. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the Delaware Trustee shall have none of the duties or liabilities of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(b) The duties of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State which the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or the Unitholders, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. No resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee shall be effective except upon the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee that (i) is reasonably acceptable to National, (ii) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and (iii) is qualified to do business in the State of Delaware. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS

(i) The Trust shall indemnify each of the Trustees or any predecessor Trustees and their agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, damage, claims, liability or expense, including taxes (other than taxes based upon, measured by or determined by the income of the Trustees), arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Trust hereunder, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim asserted by any other Person or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder, except to the extent that such loss, damage, claim, liability or expense is due to its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(ii) The Trustees shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Trust shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustees may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Trust if in the reasonable judgement of the Trustees (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustees that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Trust or if all parties commonly represented do not agree as to the action (or inaction) of counsel.

Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders' aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm's length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $130,411 and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $30,429 incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and $43,470 fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $130,411 on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates (Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the "Maturity Notice") in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the "Insured Amount Election") or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the "Trust Assets Election" and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the "Maturity Election"). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the "Maturity Notice Period").

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a "Notice of Nonpayment"), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and (ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice "from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made" (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a "Notice of Nonpayment" (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of "Compounded Amount" included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive "evidence of the Bondholder's right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment."

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

REPORTING/REMITTING TO SECURITYHOLDERS

Section 4.01. Statements to Unitholders.

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(a) With respect to the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and the Taxable Bond Account:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(ii) the principal amount (or accreted amount, as applicable) as of the month end of each CUSIP of New COFINA Bonds held in each such account (or any other securities or property received in respect thereof or in exchange therefor) (on an aggregate and per unit basis).

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

(c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.

(d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the "Trustee Costs"). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee's grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the "Extraordinary Expenses"). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

Section 6.07. Resignation and Removal of the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.10. Reserved.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an "investment trust" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an "investment trust" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an “Adverse Trust Event”), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

- (a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;
- (b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;
- (c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;
- (d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;
- (e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;
- (f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or
- (g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. If the Trustee is not U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Trustee, (b) in the case of the Delaware Trustee, if the Delaware Trustee is U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address for the Delaware Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10025. If the Delaware Trustee is not U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Delaware Trustee, and (c) in the case of the Depositor, Roberto Sánchez Vilella (Minillas) Government Center de Diego Ave. Stop 22 San Juan, PR 00907, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Depositor. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and conclusive in favor of the Trustee. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner that the Trustee deems sufficient. The ownership of Trust Units shall be proved by the Unit Register.

Section 9.08. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in these Standard Terms are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of these Standard Terms for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a) of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act that the Trust have at least one trustee with a principal place of business in the State of Delaware. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the Delaware Trustee shall have none of the duties or liabilities of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(b) The duties of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State which the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or the Unitholders, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. No resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee shall be effective except upon the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee that (i) is reasonably acceptable to National, (ii) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and (iii) is qualified to do business in the State of Delaware. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

ANNEX I

INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS

(i) The Trust shall indemnify each of the Trustees or any predecessor Trustees and their agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, damage, claims, liability or expense, including taxes (other than taxes based upon, measured by or determined by the income of the Trustees), arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Trust hereunder, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim asserted by any other Person or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder, except to the extent that such loss, damage, claim, liability or expense is due to its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(ii) The Trustees shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Trust shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustees may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Trust if in the reasonable judgement of the Trustees (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustees that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Trust or if all parties commonly represented do not agree as to the action (or inaction) of counsel.

Thereafter, each of the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) and the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt) shall accrete at the same annual interest rate (i.e., 5.04999446985535%) implied in the definition of Compounded Amount for the Original COFINA Bonds (the “Implied Rate”) and shall compound semi-annually in arrears, assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months, using the following formula: $\text{new Compounded Amount (as of a new date)} = \text{original Compounded Amount} \times (1 + \text{Implied Rate}/2)^{(\text{Days}/180)}$, where “Days” is the number of days (using the 360-day year/twelve 30-day months counting convention) from (and including) the date of the original Compounded Amount to (but excluding) the new date as of which the new Compounded Amount is being calculated. (a) At any time and from time to time prior to the Maturity Date, so long as National (i) is not in default under the National Insurance Policies and (ii) has not agreed to and has not become subject to regulatory supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings, National shall have the right to instruct the Trustee to sell any New COFINA Bonds of any series, in a minimum aggregate principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, a minimum aggregate current compounded amount) of \$5,000,000 (taking into account for such minimum, all concurrent sales of such series of New COFINA Bonds in the COFINA National Custodial Trusts) (it being understood that such minimum shall not be applicable if all New COFINA Bonds of such series held as part of the Trust Assets are included in such sale) (or any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Subject Bonds”) that are part of the Trust Assets for cash (a “Bond Sale”). Prior to any Bond Sale, National will notify the Trustee of the intended Bond Sale and will direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a sale notice (the “Sale Notice”) to all applicable Unitholders (i.e. Tax-Exempt Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or Taxable Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Taxable Bond Account).

(b) The Sale Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Subject Bonds, the principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, current compounded amount) of Subject Bonds to be sold, the applicable Target Price and Floor Price and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each applicable Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the “Bond Election”) or in lieu thereof (B) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds (“Cash Proceeds”) from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), provided the weighted average price obtainable for the Subject Bonds (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) is equal to or greater than the Floor Price (the “Cash Election” and, together with the Bond Election, the “Sale Elections”). Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders’ aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $136,093 and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $31,755 incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and $45,364 fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $136,093 on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates (Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable

pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the "Maturity Notice") in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the "Insured Amount Election") or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the "Trust Assets Election" and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the "Maturity Election"). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the "Maturity Notice Period").

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a "Notice of Nonpayment"), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and (ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice "from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made" (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a "Notice of Nonpayment" (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of "Compounded Amount" included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive "evidence of the Bondholder's right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment."

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust

ARTICLE IV

REPORTING/REMITTING TO SECURITYHOLDERS

Section 4.01. Statements to Unitholders.

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(a) With respect to the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and the Taxable Bond Account:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(ii) the principal amount (or accreted amount, as applicable) as of the month end of each CUSIP of New COFINA Bonds held in each such account (or any other securities or property received in respect thereof or in exchange therefor) (on an aggregate and per unit basis).

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

(c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.

(d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the "Trustee Costs"). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee's grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the "Extraordinary Expenses"). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor

Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite

Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.10. Reserved.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an "Adverse Trust Event"), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the

Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

(a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;

(b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;

(e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;

(f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

(g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA

Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. If the Trustee is not U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Trustee, (b) in the case of the Delaware Trustee, if the Delaware Trustee is U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address for the Delaware Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10025. If the Delaware Trustee is not U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Delaware Trustee, and (c) in the case of the Depositor, Roberto Sánchez Vilella (Minillas) Government Center de Diego Ave. Stop 22 San Juan, PR 00907, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Depositor. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and conclusive in favor of the Trustee. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner that the Trustee deems sufficient. The ownership of Trust Units shall be proved by the Unit Register.

Section 9.08. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in these Standard Terms are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of these Standard Terms for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a) of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act that the Trust have at least one trustee with a principal place of business in the State of Delaware. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the Delaware Trustee shall have none of the duties or liabilities of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(b) The duties of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State which the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or the Unitholders, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. No resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee shall be effective except upon the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee that (i) is reasonably acceptable to National, (ii) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and (iii) is qualified to do business in the State of Delaware. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS

(i) The Trust shall indemnify each of the Trustees or any predecessor Trustees and their agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, damage, claims, liability or expense, including taxes (other than taxes based upon, measured by or determined by the income of the Trustees), arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Trust hereunder, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim asserted by any other Person or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder, except to the extent that such loss, damage, claim, liability or expense is due to its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(ii) The Trustees shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Trust shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustees may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Trust if in the reasonable judgement of the Trustees (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustees that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Trust or if all parties commonly represented do not agree as to the action (or inaction) of counsel.

(g) The Trust will maintain a Delaware Trustee with its office in the State of Delaware;

(h) The Trust will not engage in any transaction with an affiliate on any terms other than would be obtained in an arm's-length transaction with a non-Affiliate.

Section 2.05. Voting Rights.

(a) National shall be deemed the sole holder of the Voting Rights with respect to the New COFINA Bonds held by the Trust, unless National: (i) is in default under any National Insurance Policy; or (ii) has become subject to, or has agreed to become subject to, regulatory, supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings (each of the condition in clauses (i) and (ii), a "Voting Rights Condition").

(b) Should any of the Voting Rights Conditions arise, the Voting Rights in respect of the New COFINA Bonds held by the Trust will be deemed to be held on a pro rata basis by the applicable Unitholders with respect to which such New COFINA Bonds relate and the Trustee shall take all actions reasonably necessary to facilitate such Unitholders' exercise of the Voting Rights.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION OF THE TRUST

Section 3.01. Accounts.

The Trustee shall establish and maintain the following accounts for the Trust to be held in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders:

(a) Tax-Exempt Bond Account. An account into which the Trustee shall deposit the Tax-Exempt COFINA Bonds (or any other securities, monies, proceeds or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Tax-Exempt Bond Account”);

(b) Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Tax-Exempt Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation)”);

(c) Taxable Bond Account. An account into which the Trustee shall deposit Taxable COFINA Bonds (or any other securities, monies, proceeds or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Taxable Bond Account”); and

(d) Stub Account (Taxable Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Taxable Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Taxable Allocation)”).

Section 3.02. Distributions.

(a) Tax-Exempt Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Tax-Exempt Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA

Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(b) Taxable Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Taxable Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Taxable Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(c) Other Distributions to All Unitholders. The Trustee shall be required to and shall make the following distributions to all Unitholders on a pro rata “pass-through” basis promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, net of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution:

- (i) Any National Consummation Costs deposited in the Trust; and
- (ii) Any COFINA Plan Distributions received by the Trustee.

Section 3.03. Sale of New COFINA Bonds.

(a) At any time and from time to time prior to the Maturity Date, so long as National (i) is not in default under the National Insurance Policies and (ii) has not agreed to and has not become subject to regulatory supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings, National shall have the right to instruct the Trustee to sell any New COFINA Bonds of any series, in a minimum aggregate principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, a minimum aggregate current compounded amount) of $5,000,000 (taking into account for such minimum, all concurrent sales of such series of New COFINA Bonds in the COFINA National Custodial Trusts) (it being understood that such minimum shall not be applicable if all New COFINA Bonds of such series held as part of the Trust Assets are included in such sale) (or any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Subject Bonds”) that are part of the Trust Assets for cash (a “Bond Sale”). Prior to any Bond Sale, National will notify the Trustee of the intended Bond Sale and will direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a sale notice (the “Sale Notice”) to all applicable Unitholders (i.e. Tax-Exempt Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or Taxable Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Taxable Bond Account).

(b) The Sale Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Subject Bonds, the principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, current compounded amount) of Subject Bonds to be sold, the applicable Target Price and Floor Price and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each applicable Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the “Bond Election”) or in lieu thereof (B) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds (“Cash Proceeds”) from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), provided the weighted average price obtainable for the Subject Bonds (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) is equal to or greater than the Floor Price (the “Cash Election” and, together with the Bond Election, the “Sale Elections”). Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders’ aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $~~[-]~~² 17,010 and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $~~[-]~~³ 3,969 incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and ~~[-]~~⁴ $5,670 fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $~~[-]~~⁵ 17,010 on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates

² ~~[NTD: $750,000 of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP fees will be allocated pro rata across all of the National Trusts. The appropriate pro rata amount will be inserted here into the definitive version of the Standard Terms with respect to each National Trust.]~~

(Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the “Maturity Notice”) in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the “Insured Amount Election”) or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the “Trust Assets Election” and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the “Maturity Election”). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the “Maturity Notice Period”).

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a “Notice of Nonpayment”), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and (ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the

Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice “from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made” (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a “Notice of Nonpayment” (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of “Compounded Amount” included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive “evidence of the Bondholder’s right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment.”

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment

of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

ARTICLE IV

REPORTING/REMITTING TO SECURITYHOLDERS

Section 4.01. Statements to Unitholders.

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(a) With respect to the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and the Taxable Bond Account:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(ii) the principal amount (or accreted amount, as applicable) as of the month end of each CUSIP of New COFINA Bonds held in each such account (or any other securities or property received in respect thereof or in exchange therefor) (on an aggregate and per unit basis).

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

- (c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.
- (d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the

Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable

pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the “Trustee Costs”). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee’s grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the “Extraordinary Expenses”). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an "Adverse Trust Event"), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

(a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;

(b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;

(e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;

(f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

(g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. If the Trustee is not U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Trustee, (b) in the case of the Delaware Trustee, if the Delaware Trustee is U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address for the Delaware Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10025. If the Delaware Trustee is not U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Delaware Trustee, and (c) in the case of the Depositor, Roberto Sánchez Vilella (Minillas) Government Center de Diego Ave. Stop 22 San Juan, PR 00907, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Depositor. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and conclusive in favor of the Trustee. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner that the Trustee deems sufficient. The ownership of Trust Units shall be proved by the Unit Register.

Section 9.08. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in these Standard Terms are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of these Standard Terms for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a)

of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act that the Trust have at least one trustee with a principal place of business in the State of Delaware. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the Delaware Trustee shall have none of the duties or liabilities of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(b) The duties of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State which the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or the Unitholders, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. No resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee shall be effective except upon the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee that (i) is reasonably acceptable to National, (ii) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and (iii) is qualified to do business in the State of Delaware. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS

(i) The Trust shall indemnify each of the Trustees or any predecessor Trustees and their agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, damage, claims, liability or expense, including taxes (other than taxes based upon, measured by or determined by the income of the Trustees), arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Trust hereunder, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim asserted by any other Person or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder, except to the extent that such loss, damage, claim, liability or expense is due to its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(ii) The Trustees shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Trust shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustees may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Trust if in the reasonable judgement of the Trustees (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustees that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Trust or if all parties commonly represented do not agree as to the action (or inaction) of counsel.

- (l) make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services, to the extent available to the Trustee; and
- (m) engage in those activities that are necessary, suitable or convenient to accomplish the foregoing or are incidental thereto or connected therewith.

Section 2.04. Limitations of the Trust.

- (a) Except as otherwise provided herein, the affairs of the Trust will be managed by or under the direction of the Trustee. Neither COFINA or National nor any of their respective Affiliates will have authority to act for, or to assume any obligation or responsibility on behalf of, the Trust or the Trustee in its capacity as Trustee;
- (b) The Trust will keep correct and complete books and records of accounts and minutes of the meetings and other proceedings of the Trust. Any such resolutions, agreements and other instruments will be continuously maintained by the Trustee as official records of the Trust;

(c) The Trust will provide for its own operating expenses and liabilities from the Trust Assets. General overhead and administrative expenses of the Trust will not be charged or otherwise allocated to COFINA or National or their respective Affiliates (except indirectly, insofar as (i) National may own certain Trust Units and (ii) certain expenses of the Trust shall not reduce the Compounded Amount);

(d) All oral and written communications, including letters, invoices, contracts, statements and applications, will be made solely in the name of the Trust if related to the Trust;

(e) There will be no guarantees made by the Trust with respect to obligations of COFINA or National or their respective Affiliates. There will not be any indebtedness relating to borrowings or loans between the Trust and COFINA or National or their respective Affiliates; provided, that, National may own Trust Units;

(f) The Trust will act solely in its own name or the Trustee's on its behalf and through its or the Trustee's duly authorized officers or agents in the conduct of its activities. The Trust will not: (i) operate or purport to operate as an integrated, single economic unit with respect to COFINA or National or any other affiliated or unaffiliated entity; (ii) seek or obtain credit or incur any obligation to any third party based upon the assets of COFINA or National or their respective Affiliates; or (iii) induce any such third party to reasonably rely on the creditworthiness of COFINA or National or any other affiliated or unaffiliated entity in its dealings with the Trust;

(g) The Trust will maintain a Delaware Trustee with its office in the State of Delaware;

(h) The Trust will not engage in any transaction with an affiliate on any terms other than would be obtained in an arm's-length transaction with a non-Affiliate.

Section 2.05. Voting Rights.

(a) National shall be deemed the sole holder of the Voting Rights with respect to the New COFINA Bonds held by the Trust, unless National: (i) is in default under any National Insurance Policy; or (ii) has become subject to, or has agreed to become subject to, regulatory, supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings (each of the condition in clauses (i) and (ii), a "Voting Rights Condition").

(b) Should any of the Voting Rights Conditions arise, the Voting Rights in respect of the New COFINA Bonds held by the Trust will be deemed to be held on a pro rata basis by the applicable Unitholders with respect to which such New COFINA Bonds relate and the Trustee shall take all actions reasonably necessary to facilitate such Unitholders' exercise of the Voting Rights.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION OF THE TRUST

Section 3.01. Accounts.

The Trustee shall establish and maintain the following accounts for the Trust to be held in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders:

(a) Tax-Exempt Bond Account. An account into which the Trustee shall deposit the Tax-Exempt COFINA Bonds (or any other securities, monies, proceeds or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Tax-Exempt Bond Account”);

(b) Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Tax-Exempt Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation)”);

(c) Taxable Bond Account. An account into which the Trustee shall deposit Taxable COFINA Bonds (or any other securities, monies, proceeds or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Taxable Bond Account”); and

(d) Stub Account (Taxable Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Taxable Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Taxable Allocation)”).

Section 3.02. Distributions.

(a) Tax-Exempt Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Tax-Exempt Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA

Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(b) Taxable Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Taxable Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Taxable Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(c) Other Distributions to All Unitholders. The Trustee shall be required to and shall make the following distributions to all Unitholders on a pro rata “pass-through” basis promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, net of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution:

- (i) Any National Consummation Costs deposited in the Trust; and
- (ii) Any COFINA Plan Distributions received by the Trustee.

Section 3.03. Sale of New COFINA Bonds.

(a) At any time and from time to time prior to the Maturity Date, so long as National (i) is not in default under the National Insurance Policies and (ii) has not agreed to and has not become subject to regulatory supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings, National shall have the right to instruct the Trustee to sell any New COFINA Bonds of any series, in a minimum aggregate principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, a minimum aggregate current compounded amount) of $5,000,000 (taking into account for such minimum, all concurrent sales of such series of New COFINA Bonds in the COFINA National Custodial Trusts) (it being understood that such minimum shall not be applicable if all New COFINA Bonds of such series held as part of the Trust Assets are included in such sale) (or any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Subject Bonds”) that are part of the Trust Assets for cash (a “Bond Sale”). Prior to any Bond Sale, National will notify the Trustee of the intended Bond Sale and will direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a sale notice (the “Sale Notice”) to all applicable Unitholders (i.e. Tax-Exempt Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or Taxable Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Taxable Bond Account).

(b) The Sale Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Subject Bonds, the principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, current compounded amount) of Subject Bonds to be sold, the applicable Target Price and Floor Price and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each applicable Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the “Bond Election”) or in lieu thereof (B) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds (“Cash Proceeds”) from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), provided the weighted average price obtainable for the Subject Bonds (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) is equal to or greater than the Floor Price (the “Cash Election” and, together with the Bond Election, the “Sale Elections”). Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders’ aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $~~[-]~~²95,733 and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $~~[-]~~³22,338 incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and ~~[-]~~⁴$31,911 fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $~~[-]~~⁵95,733 on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates

² ~~[NTD: $750,000 of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP fees will be allocated pro rata across all of the National Trusts. The appropriate pro rata amount will be inserted here into the definitive version of the Standard Terms with respect to each National Trust.]~~

(Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the “Maturity Notice”) in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the “Insured Amount Election”) or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the “Trust Assets Election” and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the “Maturity Election”). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the “Maturity Notice Period”).

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a “Notice of Nonpayment”), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and (ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the

Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice “from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made” (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a “Notice of Nonpayment” (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of “Compounded Amount” included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive “evidence of the Bondholder’s right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment.”

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment

of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

ARTICLE IV

REPORTING/REMITTING TO SECURITYHOLDERS

Section 4.01. Statements to Unitholders.

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(a) With respect to the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and the Taxable Bond Account:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(ii) the principal amount (or accreted amount, as applicable) as of the month end of each CUSIP of New COFINA Bonds held in each such account (or any other securities or property received in respect thereof or in exchange therefor) (on an aggregate and per unit basis).

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

- (c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.
- (d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the

Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind

whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable

pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the “Trustee Costs”). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee’s grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the “Extraordinary Expenses”). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an "Adverse Trust Event"), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

(a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;

(b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;

(e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;

(f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

(g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. If the Trustee is not U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Trustee, (b) in the case of the Delaware Trustee, if the Delaware Trustee is U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address for the Delaware Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10025. If the Delaware Trustee is not U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Delaware Trustee, and (c) in the case of the Depositor, Roberto Sánchez Vilella (Minillas) Government Center de Diego Ave. Stop 22 San Juan, PR 00907, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Depositor. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and conclusive in favor of the Trustee. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner that the Trustee deems sufficient. The ownership of Trust Units shall be proved by the Unit Register.

Section 9.08. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in these Standard Terms are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of these Standard Terms for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a)

of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act that the Trust have at least one trustee with a principal place of business in the State of Delaware. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the Delaware Trustee shall have none of the duties or liabilities of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(b) The duties of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State which the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or the Unitholders, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. No resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee shall be effective except upon the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee that (i) is reasonably acceptable to National, (ii) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and (iii) is qualified to do business in the State of Delaware. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS

(i) The Trust shall indemnify each of the Trustees or any predecessor Trustees and their agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, damage, claims, liability or expense, including taxes (other than taxes based upon, measured by or determined by the income of the Trustees), arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Trust hereunder, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim asserted by any other Person or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder, except to the extent that such loss, damage, claim, liability or expense is due to its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(ii) The Trustees shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Trust shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustees may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Trust if in the reasonable judgement of the Trustees (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustees that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Trust or if all parties commonly represented do not agree as to the action (or inaction) of counsel.

Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(b) Taxable Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Taxable Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Taxable Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(c) Other Distributions to All Unitholders. The Trustee shall be required to and shall make the following distributions to all Unitholders on a pro rata “pass-through” basis promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, net of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution:

- (i) Any National Consummation Costs deposited in the Trust; and
- (ii) Any COFINA Plan Distributions received by the Trustee.

Section 3.03. Sale of New COFINA Bonds.

(a) At any time and from time to time prior to the Maturity Date, so long as National (i) is not in default under the National Insurance Policies and (ii) has not agreed to and has not become subject to regulatory supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings, National shall have the right to instruct the Trustee to sell any New COFINA Bonds of any series, in a minimum aggregate principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, a minimum aggregate current compounded amount) of $5,000,000 (taking into account for such minimum, all concurrent sales of such series of New COFINA Bonds in the COFINA National Custodial Trusts) (it being understood that such minimum shall not be applicable if all New COFINA Bonds of such series held as part of the Trust Assets are included in such sale) (or any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Subject Bonds”) that are part of the Trust Assets for cash (a “Bond Sale”). Prior to any Bond Sale, National will notify the Trustee of the intended Bond Sale and will direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a sale notice (the “Sale Notice”) to all applicable Unitholders (i.e. Tax-Exempt Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or Taxable Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Taxable Bond Account).

(b) The Sale Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Subject Bonds, the principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, current compounded amount) of Subject Bonds to be sold, the applicable Target Price and Floor Price and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each applicable Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the “Bond Election”) or in lieu thereof (B) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds (“Cash Proceeds”) from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), provided the weighted average price obtainable for the Subject Bonds (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) is equal to or greater than the Floor Price (the “Cash Election” and, together with the Bond Election, the “Sale Elections”). Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders’ aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $[●]² 122,933 and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $[●]³ 28,684 incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and [●]⁴ $40,978 fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $[●]⁵ 122,933 on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount

² ~~[NTD: $750,000 of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP fees will be allocated pro rata across all of the National Trusts. The appropriate pro rata amount will be inserted here into the definitive version of the Standard Terms with respect to each National Trust.]~~

⁵ ~~[NTD: An aggregate $750,000 reduction of the applicable Compounded Amount will be allocated pro rata across all the National Trusts. The appropriate pro rata amount will be inserted here into the definitive version of the Standard Terms with respect to each National Trust.]~~

(Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates (Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the “Maturity Notice”) in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the “Insured Amount Election”) or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the “Trust Assets Election” and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the “Maturity Election”). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the “Maturity Notice Period”).

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a “Notice of Nonpayment”), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and

(ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice “from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made” (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a “Notice of Nonpayment” (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of “Compounded Amount” included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive “evidence of the Bondholder’s right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment.”

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment

of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

ARTICLE IV

REPORTING/REMITTING TO SECURITYHOLDERS

Section 4.01. Statements to Unitholders.

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(a) With respect to the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and the Taxable Bond Account:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(ii) the principal amount (or accreted amount, as applicable) as of the month end of each CUSIP of New COFINA Bonds held in each such account (or any other securities or property received in respect thereof or in exchange therefor) (on an aggregate and per unit basis).

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

- (c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.
- (d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the

Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind

whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable

pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the “Trustee Costs”). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee’s grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the “Extraordinary Expenses”). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an "Adverse Trust Event"), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

(a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;

(b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;

(e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;

(f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

(g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and conclusive in favor of the Trustee. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner that the Trustee deems sufficient. The ownership of Trust Units shall be proved by the Unit Register.

Section 9.08. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in these Standard Terms are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of these Standard Terms for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a)

The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

(ii) The Trustees shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Trust shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustees may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Trust if in the reasonable judgement of the Trustees (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustees that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Trust or if all parties commonly represented do not agree as to the action (or inaction) of counsel.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $~~138,294~~² and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $~~32,269~~³ incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and ~~$46,098~~⁴ fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $~~138,294~~⁵ on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount

² ~~[NTD: $750,000 of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP fees will be allocated pro rata across all of the National Trusts. The appropriate pro rata amount will be inserted here into the definitive version of the Standard Terms with respect to each National Trust.]~~

⁴ ~~[NTD: $250,000 of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP fees will be allocated pro rata across all of the National Trusts. The appropriate pro rata amount will be inserted here into the definitive version of the Standard Terms with respect to each National Trust.]~~

(Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates (Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the “Maturity Notice”) in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the “Insured Amount Election”) or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the “Trust Assets Election” and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the “Maturity Election”). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the “Maturity Notice Period”).

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a “Notice of Nonpayment”), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and

(ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice “from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made” (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a “Notice of Nonpayment” (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of “Compounded Amount” included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive “evidence of the Bondholder’s right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment.”

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment

of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

ARTICLE IV

REPORTING/REMITTING TO SECURITYHOLDERS

Section 4.01. Statements to Unitholders.

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(a) With respect to the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and the Taxable Bond Account:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(ii) the principal amount (or accreted amount, as applicable) as of the month end of each CUSIP of New COFINA Bonds held in each such account (or any other securities or property received in respect thereof or in exchange therefor) (on an aggregate and per unit basis).

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

- (c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.
- (d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the

Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind

whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable

pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the “Trustee Costs”). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee’s grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the “Extraordinary Expenses”). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an "Adverse Trust Event"), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

(a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;

(b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;

(e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;

(f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

(g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(a) without the prior written consent of any Unitholder, consent or affirmatively vote on behalf of such Unitholder on any matter that would: (i) terminate the Trust, (ii) except as expressly provided herein, sell some or all of the assets of the Trust; (iii) compromise, waive, sell, forfeit, or otherwise diminish the rights of the Trust, the Trustee, or the Unitholders under any National Insurance Policy; and

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. If the Trustee is not U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Trustee, (b) in the case of the Delaware Trustee, if the Delaware Trustee is U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address for the Delaware Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10025. If the Delaware Trustee is not U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Delaware Trustee, and (c) in the case of the Depositor, Roberto Sánchez Vilella (Minillas) Government Center de Diego Ave. Stop 22 San Juan, PR 00907, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Depositor. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. (ii) The Trustees shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Trust shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustees may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Trust if in the reasonable judgement of the Trustees (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustees that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Trust or if all parties commonly represented do not agree as to the action (or inaction) of counsel.

(a) At any time and from time to time prior to the Maturity Date, so long as National (i) is not in default under the National Insurance Policies and (ii) has not agreed to and has not become subject to regulatory supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings, National shall have the right to instruct the Trustee to sell any New COFINA Bonds of any series, in a minimum aggregate principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, a minimum aggregate current compounded amount) of $5,000,000 (taking into account for such minimum, all concurrent sales of such series of New COFINA Bonds in the COFINA National Custodial Trusts) (it being understood that such minimum shall not be applicable if all New COFINA Bonds of such series held as part of the Trust Assets are included in such sale) (or any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Subject Bonds”) that are part of the Trust Assets for cash (a “Bond Sale”). Prior to any Bond Sale, National will notify the Trustee of the intended Bond Sale and will direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a sale notice (the “Sale Notice”) to all applicable Unitholders (i.e. Tax-Exempt Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or Taxable Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Taxable Bond Account).

(b) The Sale Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Subject Bonds, the principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, current compounded amount) of Subject Bonds to be sold, the applicable Target Price and Floor Price and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each applicable Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the “Bond Election”) or in lieu thereof (B) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds (“Cash Proceeds”) from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), provided the weighted average price obtainable for the Subject Bonds (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) is equal to or greater than the Floor Price (the “Cash Election” and, together with the Bond Election, the “Sale Elections”). Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders’ aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $~~109,525~~² and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $~~25,556~~³ incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and ~~$36,508~~⁴ fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $~~109,525~~⁵ on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount

² ~~[NTD: $750,000 of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP fees will be allocated pro rata across all of the National Trusts. The appropriate pro rata amount will be inserted here into the definitive version of the Standard Terms with respect to each National Trust.]~~

⁵ ~~[NTD: An aggregate $750,000 reduction of the applicable Compounded Amount will be allocated pro rata across all the National Trusts. The appropriate pro rata amount will be inserted here into the definitive version of the Standard Terms with respect to each National Trust.]~~

(Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates (Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the “Maturity Notice”) in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the “Insured Amount Election”) or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the “Trust Assets Election” and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the “Maturity Election”). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the “Maturity Notice Period”).

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a “Notice of Nonpayment”), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and

(ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice “from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made” (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a “Notice of Nonpayment” (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of “Compounded Amount” included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive “evidence of the Bondholder’s right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment.”

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment

of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

ARTICLE IV

REPORTING/REMITTING TO SECURITYHOLDERS

Section 4.01. Statements to Unitholders.

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(a) With respect to the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and the Taxable Bond Account:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(ii) the principal amount (or accreted amount, as applicable) as of the month end of each CUSIP of New COFINA Bonds held in each such account (or any other securities or property received in respect thereof or in exchange therefor) (on an aggregate and per unit basis).

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

- (c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.
- (d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the

Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind

whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable

pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the “Trustee Costs”). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee’s grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the “Extraordinary Expenses”). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an "Adverse Trust Event"), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

(a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;

(b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;

(e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;

(f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

(g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(a) without the prior written consent of any Unitholder, consent or affirmatively vote on behalf of such Unitholder on any matter that would: (i) terminate the Trust, (ii) except as expressly provided herein, sell some or all of the assets of the Trust; (iii) compromise, waive, sell, forfeit, or otherwise diminish the rights of the Trust, the Trustee, or the Unitholders under any National Insurance Policy; and

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. If the Trustee is not U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Trustee, (b) in the case of the Delaware Trustee, if the Delaware Trustee is U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address for the Delaware Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10025. If the Delaware Trustee is not U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Delaware Trustee, and (c) in the case of the Depositor, Roberto Sánchez Vilella (Minillas) Government Center de Diego Ave. Stop 22 San Juan, PR 00907, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Depositor. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and conclusive in favor of the Trustee. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner that the Trustee deems sufficient. The ownership of Trust Units shall be proved by the Unit Register.

Section 9.08. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in these Standard Terms are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of these Standard Terms for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a)

of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act that the Trust have at least one trustee with a principal place of business in the State of Delaware. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the Delaware Trustee shall have none of the duties or liabilities of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(b) The duties of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State which the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or the Unitholders, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. No resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee shall be effective except upon the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee that (i) is reasonably acceptable to National, (ii) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and (iii) is qualified to do business in the State of Delaware. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS

(i) The Trust shall indemnify each of the Trustees or any predecessor Trustees and their agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, damage, claims, liability or expense, including taxes (other than taxes based upon, measured by or determined by the income of the Trustees), arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Trust hereunder, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim asserted by any other Person or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder, except to the extent that such loss, damage, claim, liability or expense is due to its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION OF THE TRUST

Section 3.01. Accounts.

The Trustee shall establish and maintain the following accounts for the Trust to be held in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders:

(b) Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Tax-Exempt Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation)”);

(c) Taxable Bond Account. An account into which the Trustee shall deposit Taxable COFINA Bonds (or any other securities, monies, proceeds or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Taxable Bond Account”); and

(d) Stub Account (Taxable Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Taxable Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Taxable Allocation)”).

Section 3.02. Distributions.

(a) Tax-Exempt Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Tax-Exempt Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(b) Taxable Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Taxable Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Taxable Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(c) Other Distributions to All Unitholders. The Trustee shall be required to and shall make the following distributions to all Unitholders on a pro rata “pass-through” basis promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, net of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution:

- (i) Any National Consummation Costs deposited in the Trust; and
- (ii) Any COFINA Plan Distributions received by the Trustee.

Section 3.03. Sale of New COFINA Bonds.

(a) At any time and from time to time prior to the Maturity Date, so long as National (i) is not in default under the National Insurance Policies and (ii) has not agreed to and has not become subject to regulatory supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings, National shall have the right to instruct the Trustee to sell any New COFINA Bonds of any series, in a minimum aggregate principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, a minimum aggregate current compounded amount) of $5,000,000 (taking into account for such minimum, all concurrent sales of such series of New COFINA Bonds in the COFINA National Custodial Trusts) (it being understood that such minimum shall not be applicable if all New COFINA Bonds of such series held as part of the Trust Assets are included in such sale) (or any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Subject Bonds”) that are part of the Trust Assets for cash (a “Bond Sale”). Prior to any Bond Sale, National will notify the Trustee of the intended Bond Sale and will direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a sale notice (the “Sale Notice”) to all applicable Unitholders (i.e. Tax-Exempt Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or Taxable Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Taxable Bond Account).

(b) The Sale Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Subject Bonds, the principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, current compounded amount) of Subject Bonds to be sold, the applicable Target Price and Floor Price and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each applicable Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the “Bond Election”) or in lieu thereof (B) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds (“Cash Proceeds”) from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), provided the weighted average price obtainable for the Subject Bonds (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) is equal to or greater than the Floor Price (the “Cash Election” and, together with the Bond Election, the “Sale Elections”). Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders' aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm's length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $~~130,411~~² 130,411 and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $~~30,429~~³ 30,429 incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and ~~[-●-]~~⁴$43,470 fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by ~~[-●-]~~⁵$130,411 on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

² ~~[NTD: $750,000 of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP fees will be allocated pro rata across all of the National Trusts. The appropriate pro rata amount will be inserted here into the definitive version of the Standard Terms with respect to each National Trust.]~~

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates (Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National

⁵ ~~[NTD: An aggregate $750,000 reduction of the applicable Compounded Amount will be allocated pro rata across all the National Trusts. The appropriate pro rata amount will be inserted here into the definitive version of the Standard Terms with respect to each National Trust.]~~

Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the “Maturity Notice”) in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the “Insured Amount Election”) or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the “Trust Assets Election” and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the “Maturity Election”). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the “Maturity Notice Period”).

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a “Notice of Nonpayment”), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and (ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice “from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made” (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a “Notice of Nonpayment” (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of “Compounded Amount” included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive “evidence of the Bondholder’s right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment.”

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

ARTICLE IV

REPORTING/REMITTING TO SECURITYHOLDERS

Section 4.01. Statements to Unitholders.

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(a) With respect to the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and the Taxable Bond Account:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(ii) the principal amount (or accreted amount, as applicable) as of the month end of each CUSIP of New COFINA Bonds held in each such account (or any other securities or property received in respect thereof or in exchange therefor) (on an aggregate and per unit basis).

(b) With respect to the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation):

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

(c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.

(d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the "Trustee Costs"). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee's grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the "Extraordinary Expenses"). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

Section 6.07. Resignation and Removal of the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.10. Reserved.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an "investment trust" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an "investment trust" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an "investment trust" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an “Adverse Trust Event”), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

- (a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;
- (b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;
- (c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;
- (d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;
- (e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;
- (f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or
- (g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(a) without the prior written consent of any Unitholder, consent or affirmatively vote on behalf of such Unitholder on any matter that would: (i) terminate the Trust, (ii) except as expressly provided herein, sell some or all of the assets of the Trust; (iii) compromise, waive, sell, forfeit, or otherwise diminish the rights of the Trust, the Trustee, or the Unitholders under any National Insurance Policy; and

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. If the Trustee is not U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Trustee, (b) in the case of the Delaware Trustee, if the Delaware Trustee is U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address for the Delaware Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10025. If the Delaware Trustee is not U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Delaware Trustee, and (c) in the case of the Depositor, Roberto Sánchez Vilella (Minillas) Government Center de Diego Ave. Stop 22 San Juan, PR 00907, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Depositor. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and conclusive in favor of the Trustee. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner that the Trustee deems sufficient. The ownership of Trust Units shall be proved by the Unit Register.

Section 9.08. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in these Standard Terms are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of these Standard Terms for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a) of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act that the Trust have at least one trustee with a principal place of business in the State of Delaware. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the Delaware Trustee shall have none of the duties or liabilities of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(b) The duties of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State which the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or the Unitholders, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. No resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee shall be effective except upon the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee that (i) is reasonably acceptable to National, (ii) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and (iii) is qualified to do business in the State of Delaware. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

ANNEX I

INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS

(i) The Trust shall indemnify each of the Trustees or any predecessor Trustees and their agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, damage, claims, liability or expense, including taxes (other than taxes based upon, measured by or determined by the income of the Trustees), arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Trust hereunder, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim asserted by any other Person or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder, except to the extent that such loss, damage, claim, liability or expense is due to its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(ii) The Trustees shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Trust shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustees may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Trust if in the reasonable judgement of the Trustees (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustees that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Trust or if all parties commonly represented do not agree as to the action (or inaction) of counsel.

(a) National shall be deemed the sole holder of the Voting Rights with respect to the New COFINA Bonds held by the Trust, unless National: (i) is in default under any National Insurance Policy; or (ii) has become subject to, or has agreed to become subject to, regulatory, supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings (each of the condition in clauses (i) and (ii), a "Voting Rights Condition").

(b) Should any of the Voting Rights Conditions arise, the Voting Rights in respect of the New COFINA Bonds held by the Trust will be deemed to be held on a pro rata basis by the applicable Unitholders with respect to which such New COFINA Bonds relate and the Trustee shall take all actions reasonably necessary to facilitate such Unitholders' exercise of the Voting Rights.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION OF THE TRUST

Section 3.01. Accounts.

The Trustee shall establish and maintain the following accounts for the Trust to be held in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders:

(a) Tax-Exempt Bond Account. An account into which the Trustee shall deposit the Tax-Exempt COFINA Bonds (or any other securities, monies, proceeds or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Tax-Exempt Bond Account”);

(b) Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Tax-Exempt Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation)”);

(c) Taxable Bond Account. An account into which the Trustee shall deposit Taxable COFINA Bonds (or any other securities, monies, proceeds or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Taxable Bond Account”); and

(d) Stub Account (Taxable Allocation). An account into which the Trustee shall deposit (i) a portion of Original COFINA Bonds (in the same proportion that the total amount of Taxable Trust Units issued on the Closing Date bear to the total amount of Trust Units issued on the Closing Date) and thereafter separately calculate the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) with respect thereto and (ii) any payments of the corresponding Insured Amount pursuant to National Insurance Policies (the “Stub Account (Taxable Allocation)”).

Section 3.02. Distributions.

(a) Tax-Exempt Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Tax-Exempt Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA

Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(b) Taxable Distributions. Promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, the Trustee shall be required to and shall distribute, on a pro rata “pass-through” basis to Holders of Taxable Trust Units, all income of the Trust, including payments of principal, interest or other cash received by the Trust on or prior to the Maturity Date on account of the New COFINA Bonds deposited in the Taxable Bond Account (or on account of any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor), net of the allocable portion of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution (such allocable portion based on the principal amount of any New COFINA Bonds that are current interest bonds underlying the Taxable Units and the Tax-Exempt Units).

(c) Other Distributions to All Unitholders. The Trustee shall be required to and shall make the following distributions to all Unitholders on a pro rata “pass-through” basis promptly following receipt thereof by the Trustee, net of any outstanding Trustee Costs as of the date of distribution:

- (i) Any National Consummation Costs deposited in the Trust; and
- (ii) Any COFINA Plan Distributions received by the Trustee.

Section 3.03. Sale of New COFINA Bonds.

(a) At any time and from time to time prior to the Maturity Date, so long as National (i) is not in default under the National Insurance Policies and (ii) has not agreed to and has not become subject to regulatory supervision, rehabilitation or liquidation (or similar) proceedings, National shall have the right to instruct the Trustee to sell any New COFINA Bonds of any series, in a minimum aggregate principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, a minimum aggregate current compounded amount) of $5,000,000 (taking into account for such minimum, all concurrent sales of such series of New COFINA Bonds in the COFINA National Custodial Trusts) (it being understood that such minimum shall not be applicable if all New COFINA Bonds of such series held as part of the Trust Assets are included in such sale) (or any other securities or property received on account thereof or in exchange therefor) (the “Subject Bonds”) that are part of the Trust Assets for cash (a “Bond Sale”). Prior to any Bond Sale, National will notify the Trustee of the intended Bond Sale and will direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a sale notice (the “Sale Notice”) to all applicable Unitholders (i.e. Tax-Exempt Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or Taxable Unitholders with respect to Subject Bonds held in the Taxable Bond Account).

(b) The Sale Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Subject Bonds, the principal amount (or, with respect to capital appreciation bonds, current compounded amount) of Subject Bonds to be sold, the applicable Target Price and Floor Price and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each applicable Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of the Subject Bonds (the “Bond Election”) or in lieu thereof (B) a pro rata share of the actual net cash proceeds (“Cash Proceeds”) from the Bond Sale (with respect to the Subject Bonds that are not subject to the Bond Election), provided the weighted average price obtainable for the Subject Bonds (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) is equal to or greater than the Floor Price (the “Cash Election” and, together with the Bond Election, the “Sale Elections”). Upon receiving such Sale Notice, Unitholders will have at least five (5) Business Days to make their Sale Elections through the Depository (the “Sale Notice Period”).

(c) Following the Sale Notice Period,

(i) If any applicable Unitholders make Bond Elections, an amount of Subject Bonds representing a proportion of the Subject Bonds equivalent to such Unitholders’ aggregate pro rata ownership of all applicable Trust Units shall be reserved from the Bond Sale and shall instead be distributed pro rata to each such Unitholder making a Bond Election (any such distribution to be rounded down to the nearest minimum denomination, with any reduction as a result of such rounding down to be distributed to such Unitholders in cash);

(ii) Applicable Unitholders who made Cash Elections and/or did not make a Bond Election will promptly receive a pro rata share of Cash Proceeds from the sale of Subject Bonds (not subject to a Bond Election), less any Cash Proceeds distributed as a result of rounding in accordance with Section 3.03(c)(i) to Unitholders making Bond Elections;

(iii) If the Trustee is unable to agree, prior to executing the sale of any of the Subject Bonds, to a sale of all Subject Bonds not subject to a Bond Election for a weighted average price (prior to the deduction of customary commissions and other sales expense of an arm’s length transaction) equal to or greater than the Floor Price, the Trustee shall not sell or distribute any Subject Bonds, the Bond Sale shall be cancelled, and the Trustee shall send a notice, at the sole cost of National, to the applicable Unitholders through the Depository stating that such Bond Sale was cancelled, after which any future sale of the Subject Bonds shall be required to be made pursuant to a new Sales Notice.

Section 3.04. Adjustments to Compounded Amounts.

(a) Each Distribution made on or prior to the Maturity Date to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date such Distribution, in an amount equal to such Distribution. For the purposes of such reduction, ninety percent (90%) of any deduction from any Distribution in respect of Trustee Costs shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly; provided, however, that the fees of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP up to a maximum of $~~136,093~~² and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP up to a maximum of $~~31,755~~³ incurred in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, and ~~$45,364~~⁴ fees of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP incurred in connection with issuing an Opinion of Counsel related to the tax treatment of the Trust shall be treated as Trustee Costs and deducted from Distributions, but one hundred percent (100%) of such deductions from Distributions shall be treated as if such amounts deducted were paid to the applicable Unitholders in cash as part of the Distribution and shall reduce the applicable Compounded Amount accordingly. On account of the costs and expenses incurred by National in connection with the negotiation and documentation of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, the Compounded Amount shall be reduced by $~~136,093~~⁵ on the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided herein, National's obligation to pay the Compounded Amount as and when due shall, in all cases, continue to accrete at the same rate to the date that National makes payments to the Trustee.

(b) Any Bond Sale resulting in a distribution of Cash Proceeds or Subject Bonds to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as the case may be, shall result in a deemed simultaneous dollar-for-dollar reduction of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the date the Cash Proceeds of such Bond Sale are distributed by the Trustee to the applicable Unitholders, in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Proceeds from such Bond Sale distributed to the applicable Unitholders; for such purposes the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each applicable Unitholder that took actual delivery of Subject Bonds had received the same amount of cash per Unit as a Unitholder that made a Cash Election, or if all applicable Unitholders participating in the Bond Sale made a Bond Election, the aggregate Cash Proceeds shall be calculated as if each Unitholder made a Cash Election and all Subject Bonds were sold at a net price equal to the Target Price.

Section 3.05. Payments on National Insurance Policies; Maturity.

(a) Payments Prior to Maturity Date. At any time prior to the Maturity Date, if the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount

² ~~[NTD: $750,000 of Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP fees will be allocated pro rata across all of the National Trusts. The appropriate pro rata amount will be inserted here into the definitive version of the Standard Terms with respect to each National Trust.]~~

⁵ ~~[NTD: An aggregate $750,000 reduction of the applicable Compounded Amount will be allocated pro rata across all the National Trusts. The appropriate pro rata amount will be inserted here into the definitive version of the Standard Terms with respect to each National Trust.]~~

(Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, is reduced to zero, (i) the Stub Certificates (Taxable-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Certificates (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; (iii) any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders, as applicable; provided, however, that if any National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs remain outstanding, such distribution shall be net of the National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs allocable to Tax-Exempt Unitholders or Taxable Unitholders (based on proportional share), which shall be paid to National and/or the Trustee, as applicable, or if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution; and (iv) upon satisfaction of and payment to National and/or the Trustee of the proportional share of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses or Trustee Costs, the Tax-Exempt Trust Units and Tax-Exempt Trust Certificates, or the Taxable Trust Units and Taxable Trust Certificates, as applicable, shall be cancelled and upon cancellation of all Units the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof.

(b) Payments at Maturity Date. If the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at the Maturity Date is expected to be greater than zero, no later than thirty (30) calendar days and no earlier than thirty-five (35) calendar days prior to the Maturity Date, National shall direct the Trustee to deliver through the Depository a notice of maturity (the “Maturity Notice”) in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A to all applicable Unitholders. The Maturity Notice will include (i) a statement identifying the Maturity Date and (ii) a statement regarding the right of each Unitholder to elect to receive either (A) a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and/or Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as applicable, at the Maturity Date to be paid to the Trustee by National (the “Insured Amount Election”) or (B) in-kind delivery of a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, at the Maturity Date, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs (the “Trust Assets Election” and, together with the Insured Amount Election, the “Maturity Election”). Following delivery of the Maturity Notice, each applicable Unitholder shall have until the fifth Business Day prior to the Maturity Date to make a Maturity Election through the Depository (the “Maturity Notice Period”).

(c) At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (but not greater than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date) the Trustee shall deliver a notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (a “Notice of Nonpayment”), to National if there are insufficient funds in (i) the Taxable Bond Account and Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Taxable Allocation) and

(ii) the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) to satisfy the Insured Amount of the Stub Certificate (Tax-Exempt Allocation). National agrees that such notice provided by the Trustee constitutes a valid notice “from the Paying Agent or any owner of an Obligation the payment of an Insured Amount for which is then due, that such required payment has not been made” (as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy) or a “Notice of Nonpayment” (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy). National further agrees that the amount set forth in such notice (if calculated in accordance with the definition of “Compounded Amount” included herein) shall satisfy the requirement under the National Insurance Policy that National receive “evidence of the Bondholder’s right to receive payment of the principal or interest Due for Payment.”

(d) On the Maturity Date (or the settlement of any pending Bond Sale, if later), after giving effect to any Distribution made on the Maturity Date or any pending Bond Sale:

(i) National shall pay to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall distribute to all Unitholders who made Insured Amount Elections and/or did not make Trust Assets Elections, a pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount, following which National shall be entitled to the corresponding pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account and/or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any Trustee Costs, which such Unitholders would have received had they made a Trust Assets Election; and

(ii) To the extent any Unitholders made Trust Assets Elections, the Trustee shall distribute to all such Unitholders, a pro rata share of any remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, net of any outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, which shall be paid to National and the Trustee, respectively, provided if cash is not available to satisfy in full such outstanding National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs, each applicable Unitholder may elect to pay in cash its applicable pro rata share of such National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs prior to the receipt of its share of remaining Trust Assets in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Taxable Bond Account, as applicable, or instruct the Trustee to liquidate all or a portion of such Trust Assets and satisfy the applicable National Deferred Expenses and Trustee Costs out of such Trust Assets prior to such distribution, following which National shall be deemed to have paid to such Unit Holders their pro rata share of the Insured Amount corresponding to the applicable Compounded Amount as if they had made an Insured Amount Election.

(iii) Upon payment and distribution of such amounts or Trust Assets, as applicable, in accordance with Sections 3.05(d)(i) and (ii) hereof, (i) the Units shall be cancelled; (ii) the related National Insurance Policies shall be indefeasibly cancelled; and (iii) the Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of Article VII hereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly understood and agreed that to the extent the principal amount on the Maturity Date of Original COFINA Bonds placed in the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation) exceeds the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation), as the case may be, as of the Maturity Date, or to the extent Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) or the Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) is reduced to zero prior to the Maturity Date, the principal amount at maturity of the Original COFINA Bonds will be deemed to be reduced or cancelled to the extent of such excess, and the applicable portion of the obligations of National pursuant to the applicable National Insurance Policies will be deemed modified and/or cancelled accordingly.

(f) If and to the extent that National fails to make any payment at the time, in the amount and in the manner set forth herein, the Trustee shall take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policy against National (including, to the extent applicable, as and when directed by the Requisite Unitholders as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof).

(g) For the purposes of drawing under the applicable National Insurance Policy (and for all other purposes under the applicable National Insurance Policy), National acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the Trustee is authorized and directed to take such action and provide such documents, including, without limitation, a Notice of Nonpayment, in order to make a demand for payment under the National Insurance Policy;

(ii) the Compounded Amount at the Maturity Date shall constitute the “Insured Amounts” as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy or the amount that is “Due for Payment but is unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” and “Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Issuer” as stated in the applicable National Insurance Policy;

(iii) the entry of the Confirmation Order, the election by the Electing Original COFINA Bond Holders and the entry into the Trust Agreement, shall, (x) satisfy any requirement that the Fiscal Agent (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) receive “evidence, including any appropriate instruments of assignment, that all of the Bondholder’s rights to payment of such principal or interest Due for Payment shall” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “vest in” National, and (y) satisfy any requirement that the owner (as defined in the applicable National Insurance Policy) “present [] and surrender ... such Obligations ... together with appropriate instruments of assignment to evidence the assignment of the Insured Amounts due on the Obligations as are paid by the Insurer, and appropriate instruments to effect” upon the payment to such Unitholder of its pro rata share of amounts or Trust Assets described in Section 3.05(d) “the appointment of the Insurer as Agent for such owners of Obligations in any legal proceeding related to payment

of Insured Amounts on the Obligations” and are “in a form satisfactory to U.S. Bank National Association,” in each case as such phrases are used in the applicable National Insurance Policy; and

(iv) the Unitholders have the right to direct the Trustee in writing to take, and the Trustee is authorized to take any actions under, provide such documents under and to enforce, pursue or recover claims under or in respect of, the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof; and, in the event of any failure by the Trustee to act upon the direction of the Requisite Unitholders to take any action to enforce, pursue or recover claims, each Unitholder is authorized to direct the Trustee to take any actions to enforce the obligations of National owed to the Trust under the National Insurance Policies. For purposes of this Section 3.05(g)(iv) and any corresponding direction to enforce the National Insurance Policies as set forth in Section 6.01 hereof, all Units owned or held by National shall be disregarded.

ARTICLE IV

On a monthly basis, the Trustee shall prepare and post a statement to EMMA, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, and upon request, deliver such statement by mail to any Unitholder, setting forth:

(i) distributions made from each such account during the month and during the year to date (on an aggregate and per unit basis); and

(i) the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end (on an aggregate and per unit basis);

(ii) a reasonably detailed reconciliation of the Compounded Amount (Tax-Exempt Allocation) and Compounded Amount (Taxable Allocation) at month end compared to the prior month end.

- (c) Any other distributions made to Unitholders.
- (d) Any required tax reporting for such period.

The Trustee shall also make disclosures and share information with Bloomberg L.P. for disclosure on its trading platform and with other similar services as is reasonably requested by such services, to the extent available to the Trustee.

Section 4.02. Compliance with Withholding Requirements.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall comply with all federal withholding requirements with respect to payments to Unitholders that the Trustee reasonably believes are applicable under the Code. The consent of Unitholders shall not be required for such withholding. In the event the Trustee does withhold any amount from payments to any Unitholder pursuant to federal withholding requirements, the Trustee shall indicate with any payment to such Unitholders the amount withheld. Any amounts withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to the Unitholder in the amount of the withholding and shall thereby reduce amounts otherwise distributable to such Unitholder. If an amount required to be withheld was not withheld, the Trust may reduce subsequent distributions by the amount of such required withholding.

ARTICLE V

TRUST UNITS

Section 5.01. The Trust Units.

The Trust Units shall be designated in the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units in the aggregate will represent the entire beneficial ownership interest in the Trust Estate. The Trust Units will be substantially in the forms annexed to the Trust Agreement. Unless otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement, the Trust Units will be issuable in book-entry form, in denominations of authorized Notional Amounts as described in the definition thereof. Each Trust Unit will share ratably in all rights of the related Class.

Upon original issue, the Trust Units shall be executed and delivered by the Trustee and the Trustee shall cause the Trust Units to be authenticated by the Unit Registrar upon receipt by the Trustee of the documents specified in Section 2.02. The Trust Units shall be executed by manual signature on behalf of the Trustee by an authorized Officer. Trust Units bearing the manual signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper Officers of the Trustee shall bind the Trustee, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of such Trust Units or did not hold such offices at the date of such Trust Units. No Trust Unit shall be entitled to any benefit under the Trust Agreement or be valid for any purpose, unless there appears on such Trust Unit a certificate of authentication as set forth on such certificate executed by manual signature on behalf of the Unit Registrar by a duly authorized Officer of the Unit Registrar, and such certificate of authentication shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Trust Unit has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Trust Units shall be dated the date of their execution.

Section 5.02. Book-Entry Certificates.

(a) The Trust Units will be represented initially by one or more book-entry certificates registered in the name designated by the Depository. The Trustee may for all intents and purposes (including the making of payments on the Trust Units) deal with the Depository as the authorized representative of the Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units for as long as those Trust Units are registered in the name of the Depository. The rights of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units shall be limited to those established by law, the Trust Agreement and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Depository and Depository Participants. Requests and directions from, and votes of, the Depository, as Holder, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent if they are made with respect to different Beneficial Owners. Subject to Section 5.03 below, a Trust Unit may not be transferred by the Depository except to another Depository that agrees to hold the Trust Unit for the account of the respective Depository Participants and Beneficial Owners.

(b) The Trustee will not have any liability to any person for any aspect of the records relating to or payment made on account of Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units held by the Depository, for monitoring or restricting any transfer of beneficial ownership in a Trust Unit or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such Beneficial Owners.

Section 5.03. Registration of and Limitation on Transfers and Exchanges of Units.

The Trustee shall cause to be kept at its Corporate Trust Office a Unit Register in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trustee shall provide for the registration of Trust Units and of transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as provided in the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms. The Trustee will initially serve as Unit Registrar for the purpose of registering Trust Units and transfers and exchanges of Trust Units as herein provided.

Subject to Section 5.04, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Trust Unit at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee or at any other office or agency of the Trustee maintained for such purpose, the Trustee shall execute and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Trust Units of the same Class of a like aggregate Notional Amount.

At the option of the Unitholders, each Trust Unit may be exchanged for other Trust Units of the same Class with a like aggregate Notional Amount and in authorized denominations, upon surrender of such Trust Unit to be exchanged at any such office or agency. Whenever any Trust Units are so surrendered for exchange, the Trustee shall execute and cause the Unit Registrar to authenticate and deliver the Trust Units which the Unitholder making the exchange is entitled to receive. Every Trust Unit presented or surrendered for transfer or exchange shall (if so required by the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in the form satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge to the Unitholders shall be made for any transfer or exchange of Trust Units, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer or exchange of Trust Units.

All Trust Units surrendered for transfer and exchange shall be disposed of by the Unit Registrar in accordance with its customary procedures.

The Trustee will cause the Unit Registrar (unless the Trustee is acting as Unit Registrar) to provide notice to the Trustee of each transfer of a Trust Unit, and will provide the Trustee with an updated copy of the Unit Register on January 1 of each year.

Section 5.04. No Obligation to Register.

The Trustee is not obligated to register or qualify any Trust Unit under the Securities Act or any other securities laws.

Section 5.05. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Units.

If (a) any mutilated Trust Unit is surrendered to the Trustee or the Unit Registrar, or the Trustee and the Unit Registrar receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Trust Unit, and (b) there is delivered to the Trustee and the Unit Registrar such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless, then, in the absence of actual knowledge by the Trustee or the Unit Registrar that such Trust Unit has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trustee shall execute and deliver and the Unit Registrar shall authenticate, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit, a new Trust Unit of the same Class and of like tenor. Upon the issuance of any new Trust Unit under this Section, the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Certificate Registrar) connected therewith. Any replacement Trust Unit issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute complete and indefeasible evidence of ownership in the Trust, as if originally issued, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Trust Unit shall be found at any time.

Section 5.06. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentation of a Trust Unit for registration or transfer, the Trustee, the Unit Registrar and any agent of any of them may treat the person in whose name any Trust Unit is registered as the owner of such Trust Unit for the purpose of receiving distributions, and neither the Trustee, the Unit Registrar nor any agent of any of them shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 5.07. Appointment of Paying Agent.

The Trustee shall serve as the initial Paying Agent hereunder and thereafter, may appoint any other Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions to Unitholders; provided, however, that any replacement Paying Agent shall be required to meet the eligibility requirement set forth in Section 6.06 and shall not increase the Trustee Costs hereunder. The Trustee shall cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Trustee that such Paying Agent will hold all sums held by it for the payment to Unitholders in trust for the benefit of the Unitholders entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to the Unitholders. All funds remitted by the Trustee to any such Paying Agent for the purpose of making distributions shall be paid to Unitholders as soon as practicable following receipt thereof by the Paying Agent and any amounts not so paid shall be returned as soon as practicable to the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.01. Duties of Trustee.

Every provision of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms relating to the conduct of, affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article VI.

The Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in the Trust Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Trust Agreements against the Trustee.

The Trustee shall (at the direction of the Requisite Unitholders) take all necessary or desirable actions to enforce the National Insurance Policies against National as set forth herein.

The Trustee shall deliver to all Unitholders copies of all notices and written communications received from COFINA as they relate to the COFINA Bonds.

Except as provided in Section 6.02 hereof, no provision of the Trust Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or willful misconduct; provided, however, that:

(a) The Trustee shall not be liable for an error of judgment made in good faith by an Officer of the Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(b) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights (or such other percentage as may be specified herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the New COFINA Bonds, under the Trust Agreement;

(c) The Trustee shall not be personally liable with respect to any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Requisite Unitholders relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee with respect to the National Insurance Policies, under the Trust Agreement; and

(d) Any determination of gross negligence or bad faith of the Trustee shall be made only upon the rendering of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction no longer subject to appeal or review.

Section 6.02. Certain Matters Affecting the Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate of auditors or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, appraisal, bond or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. Further, the Trustee may accept a copy of the vote of the board of directors or equivalent governing body of any party certified by its clerk or assistant clerk or secretary or assistant secretary as conclusive evidence of the authority of any Person to act in accordance with such vote, and such vote may be considered as in full force and effect until receipt by the Trustee of written notice to the contrary;

(b) The Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, conclusively rely upon an Opinion of Counsel or certificate of an Officer of the appropriate Person whenever in the administration of the Trust Agreement the Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder;

(c) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or Opinion of Counsel;

(d) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by the Trust Agreement or to institute, conduct, defend or continue any litigation thereunder or in relation thereto at the request, order or direction of any of the

Unitholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, unless such Unitholders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) The Trustee shall not be personally liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in good faith and believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(f) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval, bond or other paper or document, unless requested in writing to do so by Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each applicable Class or the Requisite Unitholders of each applicable Class; provided, however, that if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of such investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee may require indemnity against such expense or liability as a condition to taking any such actions;

(g) The Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under the Trust Agreement or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees and the Trustee shall not be responsible for the supervision of or any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it under the Trust Agreement;

(h) Whenever the Trustee is authorized herein to require acts or documents in addition to those required to be provided it in any matter, it shall be under no obligation to make any determination whether or not such additional acts or documents should be required unless obligated to do so under Section 6.01;

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any matter unless one of its Officers has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the applicable Trust Units generally, the Depositor, the Trust or the Trust Agreement;

(j) None of the provisions of the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it;

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind

whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(l) The permissive rights of the Trustee to perform any discretionary act enumerated in the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms shall not be construed as a duty or obligation, and the Trustee shall not be answerable in the performance of such act other than for its gross negligence or willful misconduct;

(m) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(n) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording, filing, or depositing of the Trust Agreement or any agreement referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or depositing or to any re-recording, re-filing or re-depositing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Trust Estate, or (D) to confirm or verify the contents of any reports or certificates delivered to the Trustee pursuant to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(o) The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the acts or omissions of any other party to any of the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or any related document;

(p) The Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to obtain or solicit any collateral or any funds to be remitted in any of the accounts established under the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms, and shall have a duty only to accept such collateral or funds delivered to it in accordance with the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms;

(q) In connection with its preparation of any required tax reporting for Beneficial Owners of the Trust Units, the Trustee shall, if necessary, (i) on a quarterly basis for each calendar year, request one Depository participant list, (ii) on an annual basis, contact each Depository participant identified on the Depository participant lists and request such Beneficial Owner information as shall be necessary to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such calendar year, and (iii) to the extent that a participant provides partial or incomplete Beneficial Owner information, make a second and final attempt to contact the participant or such Beneficial Owner (to the extent such Beneficial Owner's contact information has been provided to the Trustee) to obtain such additional information in order to permit the Trustee to prepare the applicable tax return for such Beneficial Owner for that calendar year;

(r) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder;

(s) The Trustee may request the delivery of a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to the Trust Agreement; and

(t) All rights of action under the Trust Agreement or under any of the Trust Units, enforceable by the Trustee, may be enforced by it without the possession of any of the Trust Units, or the production thereof at the trial or other proceeding relating thereto, and any such suit, action or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name for the benefit of all the Holders of such Trust Units, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement.

Section 6.03. Trustee Not Liable for Trust Units or COFINA Bonds.

The Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the recitals contained in the Trust Agreement and in the Trust Units. The Trustee makes no representations or warranties as to the validity or sufficiency of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units (other than the signature and authentication of the Trustee on the Trust Units) or of the COFINA Bonds or related document. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application of any of the Trust Units, or for the use or application of any funds in respect of the COFINA Bonds or deposited in or withdrawn from the Trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement other than, in each case, any funds held by or on behalf of the Trustee in accordance with Sections 3.01 and 3.02. The Trustee, in its capacity as Trustee hereunder, shall have no responsibility or obligation to comply with, or to monitor any other Person's compliance with, the Bond Resolutions.

Section 6.04. Trustee May Own Units.

The Trustee in its individual capacity or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Trust Units with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

Section 6.05. Trustee's Fees and Expenses.

(a) Pursuant to the Fee Agreement, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Trust (i) compensation agreed upon in writing (which shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) for all services rendered by it in the execution of the trusts created under the Trust Agreement and in the exercise and performance of any of the powers and duties thereunder of the Trustee and (ii) reimbursement for (x) all reasonable fees, expenses, costs and disbursements (other than Extraordinary Expenses) incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with any of the provisions of the Trust Agreement (including but not limited to the fees, expenses and disbursements of its counsel and of all persons not regularly in its employ), in each case to the extent set forth in such fee agreement and (y) Extraordinary Expenses reimbursable

pursuant to Section 6.05(b) (collectively, the “Trustee Costs”). All such Trustee Costs shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Fee Agreement and may be reimbursed to the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.02 hereof.

(b) In addition, the Trustee (including in its capacities as the Unit Registrar and Paying Agent) shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses which are properly documented and incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, payable as a result of or in connection with litigation, enforcement actions or other proceedings brought by Unitholders against COFINA, the Trust, or the Trustee except for proceedings, litigation or enforcement actions that relate to the Trustee’s grossly negligent action, grossly negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct (the “Extraordinary Expenses”). The Trustee may make withdrawals from the Trust to pay or reimburse itself the amount of any Extraordinary Expenses, up to a payment limit of $150,000 in the aggregate for the COFINA National Custodial Trusts of Extraordinary Expenses in any calendar year or pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and the final years of the Trust based upon the portion of the applicable calendar year in which the Trust exists; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not have any obligation to incur additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit unless it has received security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it for such additional Extraordinary Expenses; and provided, further, that if the Trustee does incur any additional Extraordinary Expenses in excess of such annual limit in any calendar year, nothing herein shall prohibit it from being reimbursed for such Extraordinary Expenses in any subsequent calendar year, to the extent of funds available for such reimbursement as provided hereunder and subject to the payment limit of $100,000 applicable for each such subsequent calendar year or such pro rata portion thereof in the case of the initial and final years of the Trust and provided further that the foregoing shall not limit the payment of any amounts to which the Trustee is entitled pursuant to its indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.13 with respect to defending the Trustee against any claim asserted by any Person.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Depositor shall not be liable for any Trustee Costs or Extraordinary Expenses.

Section 6.06. Eligibility Requirements for Trustee, Successor Trustee, and Paying Agent.

The Trustee, any successor Trustee, and any successor Paying Agent shall at all times be a corporation or national banking association that: (i) is not an Affiliate of the Depositor or National; (ii) is neither affiliated with the Commonwealth or its instrumentalities, public corporations, or municipalities, nor located in the Commonwealth; (iii) is organized and doing business under the laws of any state or the United States of America; (iv) is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers; (v) is in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (vi) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; (vii) is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority; and (viii) is regularly acting as a trustee in the municipal finance market. If such corporation publishes reports of its conditions at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of conditions so published. In case at any time any Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, such Trustee, successor Trustee, or successor Paying Agent shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.07.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign and be discharged from the trusts created pursuant to a Trust Agreement by giving 60 days written notice, which shall be posted to EMMA by the Trustee. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, National shall promptly appoint a successor trustee meeting the requirements set forth in Section 6.06 by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and to the successor trustee. A copy of such instrument shall be delivered to the Unitholders and posted to EMMA by the successor trustee. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee at the expense of the Trust.

(b) If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.06 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by National or the Requisite Unitholders, or if any time the Trustee shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then National or the Requisite Unitholders may remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in duplicate, which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and to the successor trustee.

(c) National, with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders, may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument or instruments, in triplicate, signed by such Holder or its attorney-in-fact duly authorized, one complete set of which instruments shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed and one complete set to the successor trustee so appointed.

Any resignation of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof. The compensation and reimbursement for fees and expenses of any successor trustee appointed in connection with the resignation of the Trustee shall be the sole responsibility of the Trust, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession.

Any removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 6.07 shall not become effective until (i) acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee as provided in Section 6.08 hereof and (ii) payment of all costs, expenses and indemnities (other than Extraordinary Expenses) due and owing to the outgoing Trustee, including without limitation, the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such succession. In the event the Trustee is removed due to a request by the Requisite Unitholders pursuant to Section 6.07(b), then the fees and expenses of the successor trustee incurred in connection with any such succession shall be the sole responsibility of the Unitholders requesting such removal.

The compensation for any successor trustee shall be paid in substantially the same manner as compensation was paid to the predecessor trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 6.07, the rights, benefits, protections and indemnities afforded to the Trustee under this Article VI shall continue to the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 6.08. Successor Trustee.

Any successor trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.07 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Unitholders and to the predecessor trustee an instrument accepting such appointment under the Trust Agreement and thereupon the resignation or removal of the predecessor trustee shall become effective and such successor trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become fully vested with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations of its predecessor thereunder, with the like effect as if originally named as trustee therein. The predecessor trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee all related documents and statements held by it under the Trust Agreement and the Unitholders and the predecessor trustee shall execute and deliver such instruments and do such other things as may reasonably be required for more fully and certainly vesting and confirming in the successor trustee all such rights, powers, duties and obligations.

No successor trustee shall accept appointment as provided in this Section unless at the time of such acceptance such successor trustee shall be eligible under the provisions of this Section 6.06 hereof.

Upon acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee as provided in this Section, the successor trustee shall (a) post to EMMA notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement and (b) mail notice of the succession of such trustee under the Trust Agreement to all Holders of Trust Units at their addresses as shown in the Unit Register.

Section 6.09. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under the Trust Agreement provided such corporation shall be eligible under the provisions of Section 6.06, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 6.11. Appointment of Custodians.

The Trustee may appoint one or more Custodians to hold all or a portion of the Trust Estate as agent for the Trustee, by entering into a custodial agreement. The appointment of any Custodian may at any time be terminated and a substitute custodian appointed therefor by the Trustee. Subject to Article VI, the Trustee agrees to comply with the terms of each custodial agreement and to enforce the terms and provisions thereof against the Custodian for the benefit of the Unitholders. Each Custodian shall be a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision by federal or state authority, shall have combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and shall be qualified to do business in the jurisdiction in which it holds any asset constituting part of the Trust Estate. Any such Custodian may not be an Affiliate of the Depositor or National. The Trustee is responsible for the fees and expenses of any Custodian appointed hereunder.

Section 6.12. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Certificates.

All rights of action and claims under the Trust Agreement or the Certificates may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Trust Units or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name or in its capacity as Trustee. Any recovery of judgment shall, after provision for the payment of the reasonable compensation, fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, be for the ratable benefit of the Holders in respect of which such judgment has been recovered.

Section 6.13. Trustee Indemnity

The Trustees' rights to claim indemnification for losses that they may incur with respect to the Trust Agreement (incorporating these Standard Terms) and each other document contemplated by the foregoing to which either of the Trustees is a party shall be as set forth in Annex I hereto, subject, with respect to Extraordinary Expenses, to the provisions of Section 6.05(b).

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.01. Termination; No Redemption Rights.

Upon the indefeasible cancellation or other indefeasible termination of the relevant National Insurance Policy, the Trust (including the respective obligations and responsibilities under the Trust Agreement of the Trustee and National) shall terminate upon (i) the pro rata payment or distribution to the Unitholders of all amounts or Trust Assets (including the New COFINA Bonds) held by or on behalf of the Trustee and required hereunder to be so paid or distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.05 hereof, (ii) payment in full of any Trustee Costs due and owing to the Trustee under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms, (iii) payment in full of any National Deferred Expenses due and owing to National under the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and (iv) receipt by the Trustee of an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the Trust Agreement have been complied with. In no event shall the Trust be terminated or the COFINA Bonds be redeemed (except in the case of a redemption of the New COFINA Bonds permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions) or otherwise released from the Trust Estate without the prior express written consent of National if either (i) the relevant National Insurance Policy has not been indefeasibly terminated or (ii) National has not been indefeasibly paid in full for any amounts owed pursuant to the COFINA Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the merger or consolidation of the Trustee shall not cause a termination of the Trust.

Section 7.02. Procedure for Termination.

During the month in which the Trustee intends to make the final distribution from the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice by letter to the Unitholders specifying: (a) the anticipated final distribution date; (b) that the final payment of the Trust Units will be made upon presentation and surrender of Trust Units at the office of the Trustee therein designated on that date and the amount of any such final payment; (c) any amounts, or trust assets, remaining on deposit in the Trust will be distributed to the holders of record of the Trust Units on a pro rata basis; and (d) that the Trustee believes that, following the occurrence of such final distributions, the conditions to termination of the Trust have been satisfied and that it intends to terminate the Trust (a "Termination Notice"). The Trustee shall provide a copy of the Termination Notice to the Unit Registrar at the time such Termination Notice is given to Unitholders.

If the Requisite Unitholders do not object in writing within 30 days after the Trustee has provided the Termination Notice as set forth herein then, upon completion of final distributions as set forth in the Termination Notice, the Trustee shall be dissolved, wound up, and terminated.

Upon the dissolution, wind up and termination of the Trust and the Trust Agreement, the Trustee or Delaware Trustee is authorized to file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE VIII

TAX PROVISIONS

Section 8.01. Grantor Trust Provisions.

The Trustee, the Depositor, the Unitholders (by their acceptance of the Trust Units and Book-Entry Beneficial Interests) and National each agree and acknowledge or have agreed and acknowledged that the Trust is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust, and it is neither the purpose nor the intent of the parties hereto to create a partnership, joint venture or association taxable as a corporation or to serve as associates in a joint enterprise for the conduct of business for profit. In furtherance of the foregoing, (a) the purpose of the Trust is and shall be to protect and conserve the assets of the Trust Estate, and the Trust shall not at any time engage in or carry on any kind of business or any kind of commercial or investment activity, (B) the Trust is formed to facilitate direct investment in the Trust Assets and the existence of multiple classes of ownership interests is incidental to that purpose, and (c) the Trustee (at the direction of National and/or the Requisite Unitholders with respect to each Class), shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Trust Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the Trust Estate to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of any Unitholder or (iv) engage in any activity which may directly or indirectly, adversely affect the status of the Trust as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust. The Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the Trust Estate except as required by the express terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the Trustee pursuant to this Trust Agreement. The Trustee and National each agree that they shall not take any action that would result in the Trust failing to be characterized for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an “investment trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c) that is a grantor trust.

Section 8.02. Characterization.

Each Unitholder acknowledges and agrees to treat the Trust Units and the Book-Entry Beneficial Interests as undivided interests in the Trust Estate.

Section 8.03. Grantor Trust Administration.

Notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, and notwithstanding any direction or instruction by less than all the Unitholders, the Trustee shall not be authorized to take any action that would cause the Trust not to be treated as a grantor trust under the Code all of the distributions and income from which would be subject to the tax treatment described in Subpart J of Chapter 1 of the Code as to the Unitholders. The Trustee shall perform its duties hereunder so as to maintain the status of the Trust as a grantor trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions. The Trustee shall not (a) exercise any discretionary rights with respect to the Trust Assets, (b) acquire an interest in any additional Trust Assets (other than proceeds of a sale of Trust Assets permitted under the terms of this Trust Agreement), (c) knowingly take any other action or fail to take (or fail to cause to be taken) any other action that, under the Grantor Trust Provisions, if taken or not taken, as the case may be, could adversely affect the status of (i) the Trust as a grantor trust, (ii) the Trust as a U.S. trust, or (iii) the Unitholders as grantors with respect to the Trust under the Grantor Trust Provisions (any such adverse effect on trust status, an "Adverse Trust Event"), unless the Trustee has obtained or received an Opinion of Counsel nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the U.S. federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust (at the expense of the party requesting such action or at the expense of the Trust Estate if the Trustee seeks to take such action or to refrain from taking any action for the benefit of the Unitholders) to the effect that the contemplated action will not result in an Adverse Trust Event. None of the other parties hereto shall take any action or fail to take any action (whether or not authorized hereunder) as to which the Trustee has advised it in writing that the Trustee has received or obtained an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that an Adverse Trust Event could result from such action or failure to act. The Trustee may consult with counsel to make such written advice, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party seeking to take the action not permitted by this Trust Agreement, but in no event at the cost or expense of the Trust Estate or the Trustee.

Section 8.04. Reports to Unitholders and Tax Authorities

(a) The Trustee shall perform or cause to be performed on behalf of the Trust all reporting and other tax compliance duties that are required in respect thereof under the Code, the Grantor Trust Provisions or other compliance guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority.

(b) Consistent with the Trust's characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust, no U.S. federal income tax return shall be filed on behalf of the Trust unless either (i) the Trustee shall receive an Opinion of Counsel that, based on a change in applicable law occurring after the date hereof, the Code requires such a filing or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service shall determine that the Trust is required to file such a return. In the event that the Trust is required to file tax returns, the Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared, and sign and file when due with the appropriate tax authorities all of the tax returns in respect of the Trust. In no event shall the Trustee or the Depositor be liable for any liabilities, costs or expenses of the Trust or the Unitholders arising out of the application of any tax law, including federal, state, foreign or local income or excise taxes or any other tax imposed on or measured by income (or any interest, penalty or addition with respect thereto or arising from a failure to comply therewith) except, in the case of the Trustee, for any such liability, cost or expense attributable to any act or omission by the Trustee in breach of its obligations under this Trust Agreement.

(c) If any tax is imposed on the Trust, such tax, together with all incidental costs and expenses (including, without limitation, penalties and reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be charged to and payable by: (i) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Taxable Bond Account or the Stub Account (Taxable Allocation), the Unitholders of the Taxable Trust Units on a pro rata basis, (ii) in the case of taxes relating to Trust Assets held in the Tax-Exempt Bond Account or the Stub Account (Tax-Exempt Allocation), the Unitholders of the Tax-Exempt Trust Units on a pro rata basis, and (iii) in the case of any other taxes, the Unitholders on a pro rata basis; provided that in each case the Trustee shall be authorized to withhold the applicable amounts from Distributions on the applicable Trust Units and pay such amounts to the applicable taxing authority and that any amounts so withheld and paid to the applicable taxing authority shall be deemed to have been paid as a Distribution to the applicable Unitholders.

(d) The Trustee shall, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, maintain books and records with respect to the Trust on a calendar year basis or such other basis as may be required under the Code.

(e) All taxes due and payable on any amounts payable to a Unitholder with respect to a Trust Unit shall be that Unitholder's sole responsibility.

(f) For the purposes of this Article VIII of these Standard Terms and any other provision of the Trust Agreement relating to the ownership of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including definitions, all references to Holder, Unitholder, or Beneficial Owner shall mean the beneficial owner of a Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. By acquiring an interest in a Trust Unit, a beneficial owner of the Trust Unit for U.S. federal income tax purposes shall be deemed to consent as a condition of acquiring such interest to comply with any requirements of such Articles, Sections, or provisions hereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 9.01. Amendment of Trust Agreement.

Promptly following the execution of the Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall post full and complete copies of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms on EMMA. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may not be amended, waived or supplemented without the prior written consent of National. The Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms may be amended, waived or supplemented from time to time by National and the Trustee without the consent of the Unitholders; provided, however, that no such amendment shall:

(a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay or accelerate the timing of, required distributions to any Unitholder without the written consent of the Holder of such Trust Unit;

(b) alter in any manner the treatment of any National Insurance Policy without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(c) alter in any manner the calculation or treatment of the Compounded Amount without the written consent of each Holder of Trust Units affected;

(d) amend this Section 9.01 without the consent of the Holder of each Trust Unit;

(e) adversely affect in any other material respect the interests of the Holders of any Class of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) without the consent of the Holders of Trust Units of such Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National;

(f) if such amendment affects the interests of the Unitholders of one or more Classes of Trust Units in any manner other than as described in (a), (b), or (c) and that is disproportionately adverse to the interests of the Unitholders of other Classes, the written consent of Holders of a majority of Trust Units of each Class of Trust Units (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds) so affected, excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National; or

(g) reduce the aforesaid percentage of Trust Units the Holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment, without the unanimous written consent of such Holders of all Trust Units then outstanding.

Prior to executing any amendment permitted by this Article IX, (i) the Trustee shall be required to obtain an Opinion of Counsel that is nationally recognized as competent in matters relating to the federal income taxation of organizations such as the Trust to the effect that such amendment will not result in an Adverse Trust Event and (ii) the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by the Trust Agreement and that all conditions precedent have been met. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities under the Trust Agreement, these Standard Terms or otherwise.

Promptly after the execution of any such amendment the Trustee shall furnish a copy of such amendment to each Unitholder and shall post a copy of such amendment to EMMA.

The manner of obtaining such consents and of evidencing the authorization of the execution thereof by Unitholders shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Trustee may prescribe.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and Section 9.03, in the event an exchange offer is made by COFINA, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any instrumentality thereof to exchange new COFINA bonds for outstanding New COFINA Bonds, of which the Trustee has received written notice from COFINA with respect to which customary procedures are satisfactory to the Trustee and have been established in writing by mutual agreement between COFINA and the Trustee, the Trustee may take such actions or make such amendments to the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms to facilitate participation in such exchange as consented to by National and Holders of Trust Units of each affected Class evidencing at least a majority of such Class (measured by the Compounded Amount of the underlying Original COFINA Bonds), excluding, from both the numerator and the denominator, any Trust Units held by National. Such amendments shall include provisions concerning the consummation and administration of such exchange offer, including customary notice of exchange offer provisions satisfactory to the Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, no such action or amendment shall (i) have the effect of requiring any Beneficial Owner to exchange its beneficial interest in its share of New COFINA Bonds without the consent of such Beneficial Owner or (ii) violate the provisions of Article VIII hereof; provided further that any such action or amendment shall require an Opinion of Counsel of the type required by the second paragraph of this Section 9.01..

Section 9.02. Counterparts.

The Trust Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which counterparts shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 9.03. Limitation on Rights of Unitholders.

The death or incapacity of any Unitholder shall not operate to terminate the Trust Agreement or the Trust, nor entitle such Unitholder's legal representatives or heirs to claim an accounting or to take any action or proceeding in any court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties hereto or any of them.

No Unitholder shall have any right to vote (except as expressly provided for herein) or in any manner otherwise control the operation and management of the Trust, or the obligations of the parties hereto, nor shall anything herein set forth, or contained in the terms of the Trust Units, be construed so as to constitute the Unitholders from time to time as partners or members of an association; nor shall any Unitholder be under any liability to any third person by reason of any action taken by the parties to the Trust Agreement pursuant to any provision hereof.

Except with respect to enforcement of the applicable National Insurance Policies in accordance with the terms hereof, no Unitholder shall have any right by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to institute any suit, action or proceeding in equity or at law upon or under or with respect to the Trust Agreement, unless the Requisite Unitholders of each class affected (or, with respect to matters relating to Voting Rights, Holders of Trust Units entitled to at least 25% of the Voting Rights of each Class affected) shall have made written request upon the Trustee to institute such action, suit or proceeding in its own name as Trustee under the Trust Agreement, and the Trustee, for 15 days after its receipt of such request shall have neglected or refused to institute any such action, suit or proceeding. It is understood and intended, and expressly covenanted by each Unitholder with every other Unitholder and the Trustee, that no one or more Holders of Trust Units shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of any provision of the Trust Agreement to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of the Holders of any other Trust Units, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority over or preference to any other such Holder, or to enforce any right under the Trust Agreement, except in the manner therein provided and for the equal, ratable and common benefit of all Unitholders. For the protection and enforcement of the provisions of this Section, each and every Unitholder and the Trustee shall be entitled to such relief as can be given either at law or in equity. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit in any manner the ability of any party to the Trust Agreement (notwithstanding the ownership by such party of Trust Units) to institute any suit, action or proceeding upon or under or otherwise with respect to the Trust Agreement or to enforce in any manner its rights as a party thereunder.

In the event that an authorized officer of the Trustee receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver of these Standard Terms, the Trust Agreement or any other document thereunder or relating thereto, or receives any other solicitation for any action with respect to the COFINA Bonds or National Insurance Policies, the Trustee shall mail a notice of such proposed amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action to each of the Unitholders within five (5) days of receipt thereof. The Trustee shall request instructions from the Unitholders as to whether or not to consent to or vote to accept such amendment, modification, waiver, solicitation or action.

The Trustee shall consent or vote proportionally in accordance with the written direction of the Holders of Trust Units; provided, however, that the Trustee shall not:

(a) without the prior written consent of any Unitholder, consent or affirmatively vote on behalf of such Unitholder on any matter that would: (i) terminate the Trust, (ii) except as expressly provided herein, sell some or all of the assets of the Trust; (iii) compromise, waive, sell, forfeit, or otherwise diminish the rights of the Trust, the Trustee, or the Unitholders under any National Insurance Policy; and

(b) without the prior written consent of National, consent or affirmatively vote on any matter that would amend, modify or waive any agreement in such a manner as to adversely impact National. Any such determination as to whether any such amendment, modification or waiver adversely impacts National shall be made in the sole and absolute discretion of National and such determination shall be promptly provided by notice to the Trustee and the Unitholders. The Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder or any other Person for refusing to consent or affirmatively vote on such a matter in accordance with such written direction of National.

Section 9.04. Notices.

All demands and notices under the Trust Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered at or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, to (a) in the case of the Trustee if the Trustee is U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address for the Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10005. If the Trustee is not U.S. Bank National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Trustee, (b) in the case of the Delaware Trustee, if the Delaware Trustee is U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address for the Delaware Trustee is 100 Wall Street, Suite 1600, New York, NY 10025. If the Delaware Trustee is not U.S. Bank Trust National Association, the notice address shall be the address set forth in the Trust Agreement, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Delaware Trustee, and (c) in the case of the Depositor, Roberto Sánchez Vilella (Minillas) Government Center de Diego Ave. Stop 22 San Juan, PR 00907, or such other address or telecopy number as may hereafter be furnished to each party to the Trust Agreement in writing by the Depositor. Any notice required or permitted to be mailed to a Unitholder shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by express delivery service, at the address of such Holder as shown in the Unit Register. Notice may also be delivered by email in accordance with a separate side letter agreement entered into between the parties. Any notice so mailed within the time prescribed in the Trust Agreement shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Unitholder receives such notice. A copy of any notice required to be telecopied hereunder also shall be mailed to the appropriate party in the manner set forth above. A copy of any notice given hereunder to any other party shall be delivered to the Trustee.

Section 9.05. Severability of Provisions.

If any one or more of the covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement shall be for any reason whatsoever held invalid, then to the fullest extent permitted by law such covenants, agreements, provisions or terms shall be deemed severable from the remaining covenants, agreements, provisions or terms of the Trust Agreement and shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of the Trust Agreement or of the Trust Units or the rights of the Holders thereof.

Section 9.06. Third-Party Beneficiaries.

National, the Unitholders and their successors and assigns shall be third-party beneficiaries of the provisions of these Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, beneficial holders of Trust Units are third party beneficiaries to the extent necessary to allow them to enforce the applicable National Insurance Policies as set forth herein. Nothing in these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, and the Unitholders and National, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under these Standard Terms or the Trust Agreement.

Section 9.07. Acts of Unitholders.

Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by the Trust Agreement or these Standard Terms to be given or taken by Unitholders or a class of Unitholders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Unitholders in person or by agents duly appointed in writing; and except as herein otherwise expressly provided such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms and conclusive in favor of the Trustee. The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any manner that the Trustee deems sufficient. The ownership of Trust Units shall be proved by the Unit Register.

Section 9.08. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in these Standard Terms are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of these Standard Terms for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 9.09. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies.

No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of any party of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exhaustive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 9.10. Merger and Integration.

These Standard Terms and the Trust Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and all prior understandings, written or oral, are superseded by the Trust Agreement and these Standard Terms.

Section 9.11. The Delaware Trustee

(a) The Delaware Trustee is appointed to serve as the trustee of the Trust in the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of satisfying the requirement of Section 3807(a)

of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act that the Trust have at least one trustee with a principal place of business in the State of Delaware. It is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the Delaware Trustee shall have none of the duties or liabilities of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(b) The duties of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State which the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or the Unitholders, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other trustees.

(c) The Delaware Trustee may be removed by National with the written consent of the Requisite Unitholders upon thirty days prior written notice to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign upon thirty days prior written notice to National. No resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee shall be effective except upon the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee that (i) is reasonably acceptable to National, (ii) has a combined capital and surplus of at least $10,000,000 and (iii) is qualified to do business in the State of Delaware. If no successor has been appointed within such thirty (30) day period, the Delaware Trustee, National or the Unitholders may petition a court to appoint a successor Delaware Trustee, which shall be at the expense of the party bringing the petition.

(d) Any Person into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any Person which succeeds to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor Delaware Trustee under the Trust Agreement without the execution, delivery or filing of any paper or instrument or further act to be done on the part of the parties hereto, except as may be required by applicable law, provided that such resulting or successor entity otherwise satisfies the requirements set forth herein to serve as Delaware Trustee.

(e) The Trust shall be responsible for the payment of any fees or expenses of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to all of the same rights, protections, indemnities and immunities under the Trust Agreement and with respect to the Trust as the Trustee; however, any such indemnification shall be made pursuant to the terms of a separate indemnification agreement and shall not be payable from the Trust Estate, except as expressly provided herein. No amendment or waiver of any provision of the Trust Agreement which adversely affects the Delaware Trustee shall be effective against it without its prior written consent.

ANNEX I

INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS

(i) The Trust shall indemnify each of the Trustees or any predecessor Trustees and their agents for, and to hold them harmless against, any and all loss, damage, claims, liability or expense, including taxes (other than taxes based upon, measured by or determined by the income of the Trustees), arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Trust hereunder, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim asserted by any other Person or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder, except to the extent that such loss, damage, claim, liability or expense is due to its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(ii) The Trustees shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or proceeding and participate in the investigation and defense thereof, and the Trust shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel; provided, however, that the Trustees may only employ separate counsel at the expense of the Trust if in the reasonable judgement of the Trustees (i) a conflict of interest exists by reason of common representation or (ii) there are legal defenses available to the Trustees that are different from or are in addition to those available to the Trust or if all parties commonly represented do not agree as to the action (or inaction) of counsel.

Dealer Manager Agreement

DEALER MANAGER AGREEMENT

December 18, 2018

Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority
San Juan, Puerto Rico

Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation
San Juan, Puerto Rico

Ladies and Gentlemen:

On January 18, 2017, the Governor of Puerto Rico enacted the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority Act, Act No. 2-2017, which established the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority (“AAFAF”) as a public corporation and instrumentality of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the “Commonwealth”), with legal existence and fiscal and administrative autonomy, separate and independent from the Commonwealth and its instrumentalities and political subdivisions. Act No. 2-2017 authorizes AAFAF to act as the fiscal agent, financial advisor, and reporting agent for all entities of the Government of Puerto Rico, including the Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (“COFINA”).

On May 5, 2017, at the request of the Governor of Puerto Rico, the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (the “Oversight Board”) filed a voluntary petition for relief for COFINA pursuant to section 304(a) of the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act, Pub. L. No. 114-187, 130 Stat. 549 (2016) (“PROMESA”), in the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the “Title III Court”), thereby commencing a case under Title III of PROMESA for COFINA (the “Title III Case”).

On June 1, 2017, the Title III Court entered an order approving the employment of Prime Clerk LLC (“Prime Clerk”) to act as the official solicitation agent in COFINA’s Title III Case and to provide any other services in connection with balloting and solicitation on plans of adjustment. Prime Clerk is the only court-approved solicitation agent in COFINA’s Title III Case.

On September 20, 2018, AAFAF and COFINA (by AAFAF as its authorized signatory) entered into that certain Amended and Restated Plan Support Agreement (as amended, restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Amended PSA”), by and among the Oversight Board, AAFAF, COFINA, certain holders and insurers of COFINA’s “Senior” and “First Subordinate” bonds, and Bonistas del Patio, Inc. Pursuant to Part II.Q of the term sheet attached as Exhibit C to the Amended PSA (the “Plan Term Sheet”), COFINA and AAFAF must use their “reasonable best efforts, including, without limitation, by, directly or indirectly, actively coordinating with, and promptly responding to inquiries from, any and all persons or entities, including dealers, to ensure the comprehensive outreach to Puerto Rico Investors and Puerto Rico Institutions holding existing COFINA securities regarding such holders’ right to elect to receive a Taxable Bond Distribution and to ensure the dissemination of complete and accurate information regarding such election to such holders.”

On November 26, 2018, the Oversight Board, as representative for COFINA in its Title III Case, filed the Second Amended Plan of Adjustment of Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (the “Plan of Adjustment”) and a proposed disclosure statement for the Plan of Adjustment (the “Disclosure Statement”) in the Title III Case. On November 30, 2018, the Oversight Board filed a “corrected” version of the Plan of Adjustment in the Title III Case.

By order entered November 29, 2018 (the “Disclosure Statement Order”), the Title III Court determined that the Disclosure Statement contains adequate information under applicable law and may be sent to holders of claims against COFINA to solicit their votes on, and elections of the form of distribution to be received under, the Plan of Adjustment.

The Disclosure Statement Order provides that the Oversight Board, as representative of COFINA in its Title III Case, must cause Prime Clerk to mail the appropriate solicitation packages to all known holders of claims in voting classes under the Plan of Adjustment. The Disclosure Statement Order establishes a deadline of 6:00 p.m. (Atlantic Standard Time) on January 8, 2019 (as may be extended by the Title III Court from time to time, the “Voting Deadline”), as the date and time by which Holders must submit their ballots and election forms to Prime Clerk.

This Dealer Manager Agreement (this “Agreement”) will confirm the understanding among (i) COFINA, a public corporation and instrumentality of the Commonwealth, constituting a corporate entity independent and separate from the Commonwealth, (ii) AAFAF (together with COFINA, the “Commonwealth Parties”), (iii) Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (“Merrill Lynch”), (iv) Barclays Capital Inc. (“Barclays”), (v) Jefferies LLC (“Jefferies”), and (vi) J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (“JPM,” and together with Merrill Lynch, Barclays, and Jefferies, the “Dealer Managers”), pursuant to which the Commonwealth Parties have retained the Dealer Managers, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, in connection with the solicitation of votes (the “Solicitation”) from holders of Existing Securities (as listed in Exhibit G to the Disclosure Statement) to accept or reject the Plan of Adjustment, including in connection with the performance of the Commonwealth Parties’ obligations under Part II.Q of the Plan Term Sheet and the exchange of certain Existing Securities for COFINA Bonds (as defined in the Plan of Adjustment) in accordance with procedures and upon the terms described in the Disclosure Statement Order and Solicitation Documents (the “Exchange”). All references to the Dealer Managers shall be deemed to include Merrill Lynch, Barclays, Jefferies, and JPM.

The “Solicitation Documents” will consist of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan of Adjustment, the Confirmation Hearing Notice (as defined in the Disclosure Statement), and, as applicable with respect to any Holder, a Ballot (as defined in the Disclosure Statement), an Election Notice (as defined in the Disclosure Statement), a W-9 Form or W-8 BEN form, and the Class 6 Notice (as defined in the Disclosure Statement) (each as amended from time to time).

Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Solicitation Documents. All references to “Holders” shall be references to holders of the Existing Securities.

The Effective Date of the Plan of Adjustment shall be referred to herein as the “Closing Date.”

SECTION 1. Engagement. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein:

(a) The Commonwealth Parties hereby retain the Dealer Managers, and subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Dealer Managers agree to act as the exclusive Dealer Managers to the Commonwealth Parties in connection with the Solicitation and the Exchange until the Voting Deadline, unless the Solicitation and the Exchange is earlier terminated in accordance with the terms specified in the Solicitation Documents, provided that the Dealer Managers agree to continue to cooperate with and provide support to the Commonwealth Parties as requested in connection with closing the transactions contemplated by the Solicitation Documents until the Closing Date. Each of the Dealer Managers agrees that it will not publicly disseminate any written information other than the Solicitation Documents and customary Bloomberg communications (which shall be consistent with the Solicitation Documents) to the Holders in connection with the Solicitation or the Exchange without the prior written consent of the Commonwealth Parties (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld).

(b) The Commonwealth Parties authorize the Dealer Managers, in accordance with applicable law, governmental regulations, court rules and orders (including the Disclosure Statement Order) and in accordance with their respective customary practices and consistent with industry practice, to communicate generally regarding the Solicitation and the Exchange with the Holders and their authorized agents in connection with the Solicitation and the Exchange.

(c) The Commonwealth Parties acknowledge and agree that the Dealer Managers have been retained solely to provide services with respect to the Solicitation and Exchange, as set forth herein. The Commonwealth Parties also acknowledge and agree that, in their capacity as Dealer Managers, each of Merrill Lynch, Barclays, Jefferies, and JPM shall act as an independent contractor, on an arms-length basis under this Agreement, with duties solely to the Commonwealth Parties and that nothing contained herein or the nature of each of the Dealer Managers’ services hereunder is intended to create or shall be construed as creating an agency or fiduciary relationship between each of the Dealer Managers (or any of their respective affiliates), any of the Commonwealth Parties (or their respective affiliates, directors, officers, employees, or creditors), or any other person. and the Exchange, each of the Dealer Managers is and has been acting solely as a principal and is not the municipal advisor, financial advisor, agent, or fiduciary of the Commonwealth Parties or their affiliates, directors, officers, employees, creditors, or any other person (irrespective of whether Merrill Lynch, Barclays, Jefferies, or JPM has provided other services or is currently providing other services to the Commonwealth Parties on other matters). None of Merrill Lynch, Barclays, Jefferies, and JPM shall have any liability in tort, contract, or otherwise to the Commonwealth Parties or any of their affiliates or to any other person for (a) any act or omission on the part of any securities broker, dealer, bank, trust company, or nominee or any other person or (b) performing its services as Dealer Manager, in each case, except (i) to the extent that such liability is finally judicially determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the violation of applicable law, governmental regulations, or any court rule or order (including the Disclosure Statement Order), the gross negligence, or the willful misconduct of such Dealer Manager, and (ii) except as otherwise provided for in Annex A hereto.

(d) The Commonwealth Parties expressly disclaim any agency or fiduciary relationship with Merrill Lynch, Barclays, Jefferies, or JPM hereunder. The Commonwealth Parties understand that the Dealer Managers, and their respective affiliates, are not municipal advisors and are not providing (nor are the Commonwealth Parties relying on the Dealer Managers, or their respective affiliates for) tax, regulatory, legal, or accounting advice. The Commonwealth Parties acknowledge that they have consulted with their own financial and/or municipal, legal, accounting, tax, and other advisors, as applicable, to the extent they have deemed appropriate. The rights and obligations that any of the Commonwealth Parties may have to the Dealer Managers, or their respective affiliates under any credit or other agreement, are separate from the Commonwealth Parties' respective rights and obligations under this Agreement and will not be affected in any way by this Agreement. Each Dealer Manager may, to the extent they deem appropriate, retain the services of any of its affiliates to assist the Dealer Managers, as applicable, in providing their services hereunder and share with any such affiliates any information made available by or on behalf of the Commonwealth Parties.

(f) Each of the Dealer Managers agrees, in accordance with its customary practices and consistent with industry practice for investment banking concerns of national standing and in accordance with applicable law, governmental regulation and court rules and orders (including the Disclosure Statement Order) and the terms of the Solicitation and the Exchange, to perform those services in connection with the Solicitation and the Exchange as are customarily performed by dealer managers, as applicable, in connection with similar transactions of a like nature, including, without limitation, using all reasonable efforts (i) to provide outreach to Puerto Rico Investors and Puerto Rico Institutions holding Existing Securities regarding such Holders' right to elect to receive a Taxable Bond Distribution, (ii) to communicate generally regarding the Solicitation and the Exchange with securities brokers, dealers, banks, trust companies, and nominees, and other Holders, and (iii) to participate in meetings with Holders.

(g) The Commonwealth Parties hereby authorize the Dealer Managers to communicate with the Solicitation Agent with respect to matters relating to the Solicitation and the Exchange, and either COFINA or AAFAF, as appropriate, shall request The Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), New York, New York, to provide the Dealer Managers with copies of the records or other lists showing the names and addresses of, and principal amounts of Existing Securities held by, the Holders of record on the Voting Record Date and, to the extent reasonably available, the Holders as of such date. On or prior to the date of this Agreement, COFINA and AAFAF will have made appropriate arrangements, to the extent applicable, with the applicable Book-Entry Transfer Facility and the Depository to allow for the book-entry movement of the Existing Securities between depository participants and the applicable Book-Entry Transfer Facility on the Closing Date. Each of the Dealer Managers agrees to use such information only in connection with the Solicitation and the Exchange, and not to furnish such information to any persons except in connection with the Solicitation and the Exchange. DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable, are referred to herein, each in their individual capacity, as a "Book-Entry Transfer Facility."

(h) COFINA authorizes the Dealer Managers to use the Solicitation Documents delivered on or after the date hereof in connection with the Solicitation and the Exchange in the manner consistent with the Solicitation Documents and the Disclosure Statement Order.

(i) Each of the Commonwealth Parties agrees to advise the Dealer Managers promptly after becoming aware of (i) the occurrence of any event which, in the reasonable judgment of such Commonwealth Party or its counsel, could cause or require the Oversight Board to withdraw, rescind or modify the Solicitation Documents; (ii) any determination to withdraw, rescind, or terminate the Solicitation or the Exchange; (iii) the issuance by any court or regulatory authority of any comment or order or the taking by any court or regulatory authority of any other action concerning the Solicitation or the Exchange (and, if in writing, will promptly furnish the Dealer Managers with a copy of any such comment or order); (iv) any material adverse developments in connection with the Solicitation or the Exchange; and (v) any other information relating to the Solicitation, the Exchange, the Solicitation Documents, or this Agreement which the Dealer Managers may from time to time reasonably request.

(j) If, between the date of this Agreement and the Voting Deadline, (A) an event occurs of which the Commonwealth Parties have knowledge such that an amendment may be required to the Solicitation Documents, the Commonwealth Parties will promptly notify the Oversight Board and the Dealer Managers or (B) the Oversight Board notifies the Commonwealth Parties of the need to amend the Solicitation Documents, the Commonwealth Parties will promptly notify the Dealer Managers of the same.

(k) Except as otherwise required by law, regulation or any judicial proceeding, COFINA will not refer to the Dealer Managers in any material in connection with the Solicitation or the Exchange, other than in the Solicitation Documents or as approved in writing by the Dealer Managers. Each of the Dealer Managers agrees that it will not make any statements in connection with the Solicitation or the Exchange other than the statements that are set forth in, or are derived from and consistent with, the Solicitation Documents without the prior written consent of COFINA (which consent shall be determined only after consultation with the Dealer Managers).

(l) An independent registered municipal advisor (as defined in SEC Rule 15Ba1-1(d)(3)(vi)) has been engaged to advise the Commonwealth Parties in connection with the Solicitation and the Exchange, and the Commonwealth Parties acknowledge that in connection with the provision of the services under this Agreement, the Dealer Managers (other than JPM) have informed the Commonwealth Parties that they are relying on the exemption provided under SEC Rule 15Ba1-1(d)(3)(vi) for the participation by an independent registered municipal advisor.

(m) In accordance with the Disclosure Statement Order, by no later than the Solicitation Mailing Date, the Balloting Agent is responsible for distributing the appropriate Solicitation Documents to all known Holders identified in the Disclosure Statement Order as Holders entitled to receive the Solicitation Documents. Thereafter, to the extent practicable until the Voting Deadline, the Balloting Agent is responsible for using its reasonable best efforts to cause copies of such materials to be made available upon request (made pursuant to procedures set forth in the Disclosure Statement Order) to each person who is or becomes a Holder.

(n) The Commonwealth Parties agree that once the Voting Deadline has passed, the Dealer Managers shall have no further obligations under this Agreement or with respect to the Solicitation and Exchange, provided that the Dealer Managers agree to continue to cooperate with and provide support to the Commonwealth Parties as requested in connection with closing the transactions contemplated by the Solicitation Documents until the Closing Date.

(a) Notice of Amendments and Supplements. Prior to the Voting Deadline, COFINA will use its commercially reasonable efforts to provide the Dealer Managers with advance written notice of any amendment or supplement to the Solicitation Documents and its consent to the filing of such amendment or supplement. The Dealer Managers, may, in their sole and absolute discretion, waive in writing the performance by COFINA of the foregoing covenant or extend the time for performance thereof.

(b) Blue Sky Compliance. To the extent applicable, COFINA shall cooperate with the Dealer Managers and counsel for the Dealer Managers to qualify or register (or to obtain exemptions from qualifying or registering) all or any part of the COFINA Bonds for offer and sale under the securities laws of the several states of the United States, shall comply with such laws and shall continue such qualifications, registrations and exemptions in effect so long as required for the distribution of the COFINA Bonds. COFINA will advise the Dealer Managers promptly of the suspension of the qualification or registration of (or any such exemption relating to) the COFINA Bonds for offering, sale or trading in any jurisdiction or any initiation or threat of any proceeding for any such purpose; provided, however, that in no event shall COFINA be required to take any action which would subject it to general or unlimited service of process in any jurisdiction in which it is not now so subject, and COFINA will advise the Dealer Managers immediately of receipt by such party of any written notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of the COFINA Bonds for sale in any jurisdiction or the initiation or threat of any proceeding for that purpose.

SECTION 8. Indemnification. In consideration of the engagement hereunder, COFINA shall indemnify and hold the Dealer Managers harmless to the extent set forth in Annex A hereto, which provisions are incorporated by reference herein and constitute a part hereof. Annex A hereto is an integral part of this Agreement and shall survive any termination, expiration, or cancellation of this Agreement.

SECTION 9. Survival. The agreements contained in this Section 9 and in Sections 1(b) and (c), 2, 3, 8, 10 and 11 hereof and Annex A hereto and the representations and warranties of COFINA set forth in Sections 4 hereof shall survive any termination, expiration, or cancellation of, this Agreement, any completion of the engagement provided by this Agreement, or any investigation made on behalf of the Commonwealth Parties, the Dealer Managers, or any Indemnified Person and shall survive the termination of the Solicitation.

SECTION 10. Governing Law Provisions. THIS AGREEMENT AND ANY CLAIM, CONTROVERSY, OR DISPUTE ARISING UNDER OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THEREOF; PROVIDED THAT ANY ISSUES ADDRESSING THE FIDUCIARY OR STATUTORY DUTIES OF THE COMMONWEALTH PARTIES OR THEIR EMPLOYEES, OFFICERS, OR GOVERNING BOARDS SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PUERTO RICO.

(a) Consent to Jurisdiction. Each of the parties irrevocably agrees that any legal action, suit, or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement (or the transactions contemplated hereby) brought by any party or its successors or assigns shall be brought in the Title III Court or, in the event such court does not have or accept jurisdiction, a Commonwealth court and any appellate court from any thereto (collectively, the “Puerto Rico Courts”), and each of the parties hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Puerto Rico Courts for itself and with respect to its property, generally and unconditionally, with regard to any such proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Each of the parties agrees not to commence any proceeding relating hereto or thereto except in the Puerto Rico Courts, other than proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce any judgment, decree or award rendered by any Puerto Rico Court. Each of the parties further agrees that notice as provided in Section 12 shall constitute sufficient service of process and the parties further waive any argument that such service is insufficient. Each of the parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives and agrees not to assert that (i) a proceeding in the Title III Court is brought in an inconvenient forum, (ii) the venue of such proceeding is improper, or (iii) that the Title III Court and any appellate court from any thereof lacks jurisdiction over such proceeding or any party thereto.

(b) Waiver of Immunity. Each party irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, all immunity (whether on the basis of sovereignty or otherwise) from jurisdiction and service of process to which it might otherwise be entitled in the Puerto Rico Courts, and each party will not raise or claim or cause to be pleaded any such immunity, including, without limitation, any immunity pursuant to the United States Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976, as amended.

(c) Waiver of Jury Trial. THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

ANNEX A

To Dealer Manager Agreement, dated December 18, 2018 (the “Agreement”), among Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, Barclays Capital Inc., Jefferies LLC and
J.P. Morgan, Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority, and Puerto Rico
Sales Tax Financing Corporation

Section 1. Indemnification of the Dealer Managers. Subject to Section 9 of this Agreement, COFINA shall indemnify and hold harmless the Dealer Managers, their respective affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents and controlling persons (each, an “Indemnified Person”) from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and reasonable expenses (collectively, “Losses”), joint or several, to which any such Indemnified Person may become subject under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or other federal or state statutory law or regulation, or at common law or otherwise (including in settlement of any litigation, if such settlement is effected with the written consent of COFINA), insofar as such Losses arise out of or are based upon (a) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Solicitation Documents, or in any amendment, or the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, (b) any breach by COFINA of any representation or warranty as of the date such representation or warranty is given or failure to comply with any of the agreements set forth in the Agreement, (c) in whole or in part upon any failure of COFINA to perform its obligations hereunder or under law; or (d) any act or failure to act or any alleged act or failure to act by the Dealer Managers in connection with, or relating in any manner to, the transactions contemplated by the Solicitation Documents or in any amendment or supplement to any of the foregoing, and which is included as part of or referred to in any loss, claim, damage, liability or action arising out of or based upon any matter covered by clause (a) above, provided that COFINA shall not be liable under this clause (d) to an Indemnified Person to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction shall have determined by a final judgment that such Losses resulted directly from any such acts or failures to act undertaken or omitted to be taken by such Indemnified Person through its gross negligence or willful misconduct; and to reimburse the Dealer Managers and each such director, officer, employee or controlling person for any and all expenses (including, subject to Section 3 hereof, the fees and disbursements of counsels chosen by the Merrill Lynch, Barclays, Jefferies or JPM) as such expenses are reasonably incurred by the Dealer Managers or such director, officer, employee or controlling person in connection with investigating, defending, settling, compromising or paying any such loss, claim, damage, liability, expense or action; provided, however, the foregoing indemnity agreement shall not extend to any names and addresses of the Dealer Managers as provided in the Solicitation Documents (collectively, the “Dealer Managers’ Information”); provided, further, that the obligations of COFINA shall not apply to the first $5,000,000.00 of Losses and expenses incurred in the aggregate by the Dealer Managers that could otherwise be paid or reimbursed under this indemnity agreement.

Section 2. Indemnification of COFINA. Each of the Dealer Managers agrees to indemnify and hold harmless COFINA and each of its officers, directors, employees and agents, and each person, if any, who controls COFINA within the meaning of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, against any loss, claim, damage, liability, or expense, as incurred, to which COFINA or any such officer, director, employee, or agent or controlling person may become subject, under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, or other federal or state statutory law or regulation, or at common law or otherwise (including in settlement of any litigation, if such settlement is effected with the written consent of the Dealer Managers), but only to the extent that such loss, claim, damage, liability or expense (or actions in respect thereof as contemplated below) arises out of or is based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Solicitation Documents or any amendment or supplement thereto, or the omission or alleged omission therefrom of a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in the Solicitation Documents or any amendment or supplement thereto, with respect to the Dealer Managers' Information applicable to such Dealer Manager; and to reimburse COFINA and each such officer, director, employee, agent, or controlling person for any and all expenses (including the fees and disbursements of counsel) as such expenses are reasonably incurred by COFINA or such, officer, director, employee, agent, or controlling person in connection with investigating, defending, settling, compromising or paying any such loss, claim, damage, liability, expense or action. COFINA hereby acknowledges that the only Dealer Managers' Information are any names and addresses of the Dealer Managers as provided in the Solicitation Documents. The indemnity agreement set forth in this Section 2 shall be in addition to any liabilities that any of the Dealer Managers may otherwise have.

Section 3. Notifications and Other Indemnification Procedures. Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party under this Annex A of notice of the commencement of any action, such indemnified party will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against an indemnifying party under this Annex A, notify the indemnifying party in writing of the commencement thereof, but the omission so to notify the indemnifying party will not relieve it from any liability which it may have to any indemnified party for contribution or otherwise than under the indemnity agreement contained in this Annex A or to the extent it is not prejudiced as a proximate result of such failure. In case any such action is brought against any indemnified party and such indemnified party seeks or intends to seek indemnity from an indemnifying party, the indemnifying party will be entitled to participate in and, to the extent that it shall elect, jointly with all other indemnifying parties similarly notified, by written notice delivered to the indemnified party promptly after receiving the aforesaid notice from such indemnified party, to assume the defense thereof with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party; provided, however, if the defendants in any such action include both the indemnified party and the indemnifying party and the indemnified party shall have reasonably concluded that a conflict may arise between the positions of the indemnifying party and the indemnified party in conducting the defense of any such action or that there may be legal defenses available to it and/or other indemnified parties which are different from or additional to those available to the indemnifying party, the indemnified party or parties shall have the right to select separate counsel to assume such legal defenses and to otherwise participate in the defense of such action on behalf of such indemnified party or parties. Upon receipt of notice from the indemnifying party to such indemnified party of such indemnifying party's election so to assume the defense of such action and approval by the indemnified party of counsel, the indemnifying party will not be liable to such indemnified party under this Annex A for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the defense thereof unless (i) the indemnified party shall have employed separate counsel in accordance with the proviso to the next preceding sentence (it being understood, however, that the indemnifying party shall not be liable for the expenses of more than one separate counsel (together with local counsel), approved by the indemnifying party (Merrill Lynch, Barclays, Jefferies and JPM, in the case of Sections 2 and 5 hereof), representing the indemnified parties who are parties to such action) or (ii) the indemnifying party shall not have employed counsel satisfactory to the indemnified party to represent the indemnified party within a reasonable time after notice of commencement of the action, in each of which cases the fees and expenses of counsel shall be at the expense of the indemnifying party.

Section 4. Settlements. The indemnifying party under this Section 4 shall not be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent, but if settled with such consent or if there be a final judgment for the plaintiff, the indemnifying party agrees to indemnify the indemnified party against any loss, claim, damage, liability or expense by reason of such settlement or judgment. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, if at any time an indemnified party shall have requested an indemnifying party to reimburse the indemnified party for fees and expenses of counsel as contemplated by this Annex A, the indemnifying party agrees that it shall be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent if (i) such settlement is entered into more than 30 days after receipt by such indemnifying party of the aforesaid request and (ii) such indemnifying party shall not have reimbursed the indemnified party in accordance with such request or disputed in good faith the indemnified party's entitlement to such reimbursement prior to the date of such settlement. No indemnifying party shall, without the prior written consent of the indemnified party, effect any settlement, compromise or consent to the entry of judgment in any pending or threatened action, suit or proceeding in respect of which any indemnified party is or could have been a party and indemnity was or could have been sought hereunder by such indemnified party, unless such settlement, compromise or consent (i) includes an unconditional release of such indemnified party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such action, suit or proceeding and (ii) does not include any statements as to or any findings of fault, culpability or failure to act by or on behalf of any indemnified party.

Section 5. Contribution. If the indemnification provided for in Sections 1 and 2 hereof is for any reason held to be unavailable to or otherwise insufficient to hold harmless an indemnified party in respect of any losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses referred to therein in excess of $5,000,000.00, then each indemnifying party shall contribute to the aggregate amount paid or payable by such indemnified party, as incurred, as a result of any losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses referred to therein (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by COFINA, on the one hand, and each of the Dealer Managers, on the other hand, in connection with the transaction contemplated hereby (ii) if the allocation provided by clause (i) above is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause (i) above but also the relative fault of COFINA, on the one hand, and each of the Dealer Managers, on the other hand, in connection with the statements or omissions or inaccuracies in the representations and warranties herein which resulted in such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative benefits received by COFINA, on the one hand, and each of the Dealer Managers, on the other hand, in connection with the Solicitation and the Exchange shall be deemed to be in the same respective proportions as the aggregate principal amount of the COFINA Bonds proposed to be issued by COFINA bears to the applicable aggregate fees paid or to be paid to the Dealer Managers.

The amount paid or payable by a party as a result of the losses, claims, damages, liabilities and expenses referred to above shall be deemed to include, subject to the limitations set forth in Sections 1 and 2 hereof, any legal or other fees or expenses reasonably incurred by such party in connection with investigating or defending any action or claim. The provisions set forth in Section 3 hereof with respect to notice of commencement of any action shall apply if a claim for contribution is to be made under this Section 5; provided, however, that no additional notice shall be required with respect to any action for which notice has been given under Section 3 hereof for purposes of indemnification.

COFINA and the Dealer Managers agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 5 were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in this Section 5.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 5, none of the Dealer Managers shall be required to contribute any amount in excess of the aggregate amount of fees actually received by such Dealer Manager under the Agreement. No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11 of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. For purposes of this Section 5, each director, officer and employee of each of the Dealer Managers and each person, if any, who controls each of the Dealer Managers within the meaning of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act shall have the same rights to contribution as the Dealer Managers, and each director of COFINA, and each person, if any, who controls COFINA with the meaning of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act shall have the same rights to contribution as COFINA.

Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Annex A have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Agreement.

Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority

Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation
San Juan, Puerto Rico

Department of Treasury of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico
San Juan, Puerto Rico

Ladies and Gentlemen:

On January 18, 2017, the Governor of Puerto Rico enacted the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority Act, Act No. 2-2017, which established the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority ("AAFAF") as a public corporation and instrumentality of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the "Commonwealth"), with legal existence and fiscal and administrative autonomy, separate and independent from the Commonwealth and its instrumentalities and political subdivisions. Act No. 2-2017 authorizes AAFAF to act as the fiscal agent, financial advisor, and reporting agent for all entities of the Government of Puerto Rico, including the Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation ("COFINA").

Reference is made to the Dealer Manager Agreement, dated the date hereof (including the exhibits and other attachments thereto, the "DMA") among AAFAF, COFINA (by AAFAF as its authorized signatory), Merrill Lynch, Barclays, Jefferies and JPM. Except as otherwise indicated herein, terms used but not defined in this letter agreement (this "Fee Letter") shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the DMA. This Fee Letter is the "Fee Letter" referred to in the DMA.

1. Role of the Dealer Managers. With respect to the Solicitation and Exchange (collectively, the "COFINA Transactions"), Merrill Lynch shall serve as the lead dealer manager and Barclays, Jefferies and JPM shall serve as co-dealer managers. The Dealer Managers are not and will not be deemed for any purpose to be acting as agents, joint ventures or partners of each other

For purposes of league table credit, as determined by Securities Data Corporation, for the COFINA Transactions, Merrill Lynch will be allotted 60% of the aggregate principal amount of the Existing Securities exchanged on the Effective Date for the COFINA Bonds (or otherwise retired in accordance with the Plan of Adjustment) and Barclays will be allotted 40% of the aggregate principal amount of the Existing Securities exchanged on the Effective Date for the COFINA Bonds (or otherwise retired in accordance with the Plan of Adjustment).

2. Fees and Expenses. Subject to the terms and conditions of the DMA,

(a) Fees/Commissions.

(i) Unless the Title III Court orders otherwise, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the "Commonwealth") shall pay, or cause to be paid, on the Effective Date of the current Plan of Adjustment or on the effective date of any subsequent plan of adjustment of COFINA if the effective date of such subsequent plan of adjustment occurs within 12 months of the execution of this Fee Letter and the DMA is not terminated for Cause before such date, to Merrill Lynch a structuring fee (the "Structuring Fee") in an amount equal to 0.035% of the aggregate principal amount of the Existing Securities ($17,512,573,537.70) exchanged on the Effective Date for the COFINA Bonds (or otherwise retired in accordance with the Plan of Adjustment or any subsequent amended plan of adjustment of COFINA). If the Effective Date of the Plan of Adjustment or any subsequent plan of adjustment of COFINA does not occur within 12 months of the execution of this Fee Letter, the Commonwealth shall not be obligated to pay the Structuring Fee.

(ii) Unless the Title III Court orders otherwise, the Commonwealth shall pay, or cause to be paid, on the Effective Date of the current Plan of Adjustment, to the Dealer Managers an aggregate fee (the "Solicitation Fee") equal to 0.150% of the aggregate principal amount of the Securities ($17,512,573,537.70) exchanged on the Effective Date for the COFINA Bonds (or otherwise retired in accordance with the Plan of Adjustment). Merrill Lynch will receive 50% of the Solicitation Fee, Barclays will receive 30% of the Solicitation Fee, Jefferies will receive 10% of the Solicitation Fee and JPM will receive 10% of the Solicitation Fee. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Effective Date of the current Plan of Adjustment does not occur, the Commonwealth shall not be obligated to pay the Solicitation Fee and COFINA will be entitled to negotiate a new dealer manager agreement in connection with any subsequent plan of adjustment of COFINA.

(iii) If the Effective Date of the Plan of Adjustment or any subsequent plan of adjustment of COFINA does not occur within 12 months of the execution of this Fee Letter, the Commonwealth shall not be obligated to pay the Structuring Fee or the Solicitation Fee.

(b) Reimbursement of Expenses. Unless the Title III Court orders otherwise, the fees set forth in Section 2(a) above and all costs and expenses in accordance with this Section 2(b) associated with the COFINA Transactions shall be paid by the Commonwealth to the Dealer Managers on the Effective Date upon the submittal, if required by law, of the appropriate invoices. These expenses will include, but are not limited to, expenses relating to the preparation, printing and delivery of any Solicitation Documents, any trustee, depository, fiscal agent, transfer agent, information agent, solicitation agent or registrar's fees (and counsel to any of the foregoing), listing and filing fees, roadshow expenses, and the fees and expenses of accountants, auditors, experts, appraisers, rating agencies, legal counsel and other advisors to or agents of the Commonwealth Parties and other expenses customary for these types of transactions. Unless the Title III Court orders otherwise, to the extent that the Dealer Managers or any of their respective affiliates incur any such expenses on behalf of AAFAF, COFINA or the Commonwealth in carrying out their responsibilities, the Commonwealth shall reimburse the applicable Dealer Manager for such expenses on the Effective Date. In addition, in carrying out their responsibilities, the Dealer Managers or their respective affiliates may incur some out-of-pocket expenses of their own. These expenses typically include, but are not limited to, the fees and expenses of legal counsel to the Dealer Managers (provided that reimbursement for the fees and expenses of such legal counsel shall be limited to one firm for the Dealer Managers, which the parties agree shall be Squire Patton Boggs, with the fees and expenses of any other legal counsel retained by any of the Dealer Managers to be borne by the applicable Dealer Manager and not reimbursed by the Commonwealth), travel, lodging and transportation costs incurred by representatives of Merrill Lynch, Barclays, Jefferies and JPM, or their respective affiliates to participate in meetings, road show or other investor presentations, and other expenses associated with its due diligence activities. The Commonwealth agrees to reimburse the applicable Dealer Manager for any such expenses on the Effective Date, unless the Title III Court orders otherwise. Any expense for which a reimbursement is requested shall be reasonable, documented and necessary and consistent with AAFAF's policies and regulations, and any expense in excess of $5,000.00 shall be authorized in writing and in advance by AAFAF. The parties agree that to the extent that the Commonwealth is required to reimburse the Dealer Managers for their legal counsel and the Dealer Managers receive a benefit, including without limitation, a discount, credit or other accommodation, from such Dealer Managers' counsel based on the fees such counsel may receive on account of their relationship with the Dealer Managers or their respective affiliates, including, without limitation, fees paid in accordance with this Section, such discount credit or accommodation shall be reflected in the amount that the Commonwealth is required to reimburse.

(c) Payments Generally. All amounts herein are stated in U.S. dollars and all payments under this Fee Letter (or any order of the Title III Court) shall be paid in immediately available funds in U.S. dollars, without condition or deduction for any counterclaim, defense, recoupment or setoff, and free and clear of any tax, withholding, assessment or other governmental charge (with appropriate gross-up for withholding taxes required by law), except for those as may be required under Act No. 48- 2013, as amended, and under the Puerto Rico Internal Revenue Code of 2011 and its regulations. When invoicing the Commonwealth, the Dealer Managers will estimate an allocation of fees between those relating to activities undertaken outside Puerto Rico and constituting gross income from sources within Puerto Rico. Payments to the Dealer Managers under this Fee Letter in connection with the COFINA Transactions shall be payable on the Effective Date of the Plan of Adjustment, and upon the submittal of the appropriate invoices.

Invoices must also include a written certification stating that no officer or employee of AAFAF, COFINA or the Commonwealth will derive or obtain any benefit or profit of any kind from this Fee Letter. Invoices that do not include this certification will not be accepted. This certification must read as follows:

"We certify to the best of its knowledge and belief under penalty of nullity that no public servant of the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority, the Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico will derive or obtain any benefit or profit of any kind from the contractual relationship which is the basis of this invoice. 3. Other.

(a) AAFAF hereby represents to the Dealer Managers that AAFAF is authorized to enter into this Agreement pursuant to Section 5(d)(vi) of Act 2-2017.

(b) Each of the Dealer Managers acknowledges and agrees, severally and not jointly, that it may be required, if not conflictive, to provide all or some of the services under the DMA directly to any entity of the Executive Branch with which AAFAF subscribes an interagency agreement or by direct disposition of the Office of the Chief of Staff of the Governor of Puerto Rico, with notice to the AAFAF, in which case, such services will be provided under the same terms and conditions set forth in the DMA. For purposes of this provision, the term “entity of the Executive Branch” includes all agencies of the Government of Puerto Rico, as well as instrumentalities, public corporations and the Governor’s Office.

(c) Each of the Dealer Managers, severally and not jointly, certifies that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, as of the date hereof, neither it nor any of its employees set forth on Schedule A hereto (collectively, the “DM Employees”) have been convicted or have been found guilty in any Puerto Rico or United States Federal court for any of the crimes included under Articles 4.2, 4.3 or 5.7 of Act No. 1-2012, any of the crimes listed in Articles 250 through 266 of Act No. 146-2012, as amended, known as the Puerto Rico Penal Code, any of the crimes under Act No. 2-2018 or any other felony that involves misuse of public funds or property, including, but not limited to the crimes mentioned in Article 6.8 of Act No. 8-2017, as amended, known as the Act for the Administration and Transformation of Human Resources in the Government of Puerto Rico (“Act No. 8-2017”). Furthermore, neither the Dealer Managers nor the DM Employees has knowledge of any of the foregoing being the subject of any investigation in either a civil or a criminal procedure in a state or federal court, for criminal or civil charges related to the Puerto Rico public treasury, the Puerto Rico public trust, a Puerto Rico public function, or a fault that involves public funds or property in Puerto Rico. If the status of either of the Dealer Managers or the DM Employees with regards to the charges previously mentioned should change at any time during the term of the DMA, the applicable Dealer Manager shall notify AAFAF promptly. The failure to comply with this responsibility shall permit AAFAF to terminate the DMA for “Cause” as referenced in Section 2 above and set forth in Section 3(b) of the DMA.

In addition to the foregoing, Act No. 2-2018 requires that any person or entity who wishes to be granted a contract with any municipality, agency, instrumentality or public corporation of the Government for the rendering of services must submit a sworn statement signed before a notary public stating neither it, nor its president or member of the board of directors nor any DM Employee has been convicted or has plead guilty to any of the crimes listed under Article 6.8.3 of Act No. 8-2017 or any of the crime included in Act No. 2-2018.

If the status of any DM Employee of any of the Dealer Managers pursuant to the DMA with respect to this certification should change at any time during the term of the engagement, the applicable Dealer Manager shall notify AAFAF promptly, and AAFAF shall have the remedies provided in the aforementioned acts, including the right to terminate the DMA for “Cause”.

(d) Each of the Dealer Managers, severally and not jointly, also certifies that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, none of the DM Employees receives any kind of individual compensation from any agency, instrumentality, public corporation or municipality of the Government of Puerto Rico.

(e) Each of the Dealer Managers, severally and not jointly, agrees that it may not subcontract any entity to provide any type of service related to the DMA without AAFAF’s prior written consent. AAFAF acknowledges that the Dealer Managers can retain legal counsel and such retention shall not constitute subcontracting hereunder.

(f) The Dealer Managers shall be responsible for paying: (i) all applicable income taxes in accordance with any and all applicable income tax laws and (ii) any corresponding contributions to the Social Security Administration. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Commonwealth shall deduct and withhold one point five percent (1.5%) of the gross amounts paid to the Dealer Managers under this Fee Letter in accordance with Article I of Act No. 48-2013, as amended, if applicable.

(g) Each of the Dealer Managers, severally and not jointly, certifies that (i) each of the DM Employees recognizes and agrees that it shall be bound by and comply with all applicable provisions of the Code of Ethics for Contractors, Suppliers, and Applicants for Economic Incentives of the Government of Puerto Rico (known in Spanish as “Código de Ética para Contratistas, Suplidores y Solicitantes de Incentivos Económicos del Gobierno de Puerto Rico”), Chapter III of Act No. 2-2018 and that each of the DM Employees has received a copy of Act 2- 2018 and the Enabling Act of the Office of Government Ethics of Puerto Rico, Act No. 1 of January 3, 2012, as amended, and agrees to abide and comply with their applicable provisions, (ii) as of the date of this Agreement, no conflict of interest under the Code of Ethic exists for any of the DM Employees and (iii) the applicable Dealer Manager shall promptly notify AAFAF of any conflict of interest with respect to any of the DM Employees after learning of such conflict.

(h) The parties acknowledge that no Dealer Manager will receive any payment for the services rendered under the terms of this Fee Letter until this Fee Letter has been registered at the Office of the Comptroller of Puerto Rico, as required by Act No. 18 of October 30, 1975, as amended.

(i) Each of the Dealer Managers, severally and not jointly, certifies that to the best of its knowledge and belief, that at the execution of this Fee Letter it has submitted such income tax returns in Puerto Rico during the past five years as are required by law, and that, except as described below, it has no outstanding debts or has a payment plan in place with the Government of Puerto Rico for income taxes or real or chattel property taxes. Each of the Dealer Managers, severally and not jointly, also certifies that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, that it does not have outstanding debts regarding its payment of unemployment insurance premiums, workers’ compensation payments or Social Security for chauffeurs in Puerto Rico. Each of the Dealer Managers, severally and not jointly, further certifies and warrants that it does not have any debt or legal procedures to collect child support payments registered with the Child Support Administration (known in Spanish as “Administración para el Sustento de Menores”, and hereinafter referred to by its acronym, “ASUME”). In compliance with this clause (i), each of the Dealer Managers, severally and not jointly, certifies that at the execution of this Fee Letter it has presented to AAFAF the corresponding certification issued by ASUME. Furthermore, each of the Dealer Managers, severally and not jointly, certifies that it is in compliance with Act No. 168-2000, as amended, known as the “Act for the Improvement of Family Assistance and for the Support of the Elderly”. In the event that either of the Dealer Managers is under a court or administrative order directing it to provide financial support or to fulfill any obligation under the above- mentioned Act, it further certifies and warrants that it is in compliance with said obligations. The Government of Puerto Rico has identified an outstanding debt owed to Puerto Rico in the amount of $17,774.02 for sales/use taxes for six tax periods between December 2015 and to November 2016 relating to penalty and interest on late filed returns and Merrill Lynch is in the process of resolving this issue and making payment to Puerto Rico for this debt.

To the extent required, the Dealer Managers, severally and not jointly, certify that they are not required to obtain a waiver from any Puerto Rico government entity prior to or in connection with the execution of this Fee Letter or that, to the extent any such waiver is required, the same has been obtained by the Dealer Managers prior to the execution of this Fee Letter.

(j) Pursuant to Act No. 237, enacted on August 31, 2004, each of the Dealer Managers, severally and not jointly, accepts that it is knowledgeable of the rules of ethics that apply to its business and the services to be provided under the DMA and assumes responsibility for its own actions.

(k) The execution of this Fee Letter shall not generate any rights for the Dealer Managers or their respective employees providing services pursuant to the DMA to receive any benefits that the officers or employees of AAFAF, the Government of Puerto Rico or of any agency, instrumentality or municipality of Puerto Rico may be entitled to as officers or employees of AAFAF or the Government of Puerto Rico pursuant to law or regulation including, but not limited to, vacation and sick leave, workmen’s compensation, or any other such benefits.

(l) This Fee Letter is intended to be solely for the benefit of the parties hereto and is not intended to confer any benefits upon, or create any rights in favor of, any person other than the parties hereto. This Fee Letter may not be amended or waived except by an instrument in writing signed by each of the parties hereto. This Fee Letter may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which when taken together shall constitute one agreement. Delivery of an executed signature page of this Fee Letter by facsimile or electronic communication shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart hereof. This Fee Letter, the DMA and the Confidentiality Agreement are the only agreements that have been entered into between us with respect to the services to be provided hereunder, and set forth the entire understanding of the parties with respect thereto.

Agreement to Remarket

AGREEMENT TO REMARKET

This agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered into by and between Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. (“Assured”) and the Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (“Corporation” and together with Assured, the “Parties”) as reorganized pursuant to the Third Amended Plan of Adjustment of Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (the “Plan”). This Agreement shall be effective as of the Effective Date of the Plan. All capitalized terms used but not defined in this Agreement shall have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Plan or in the December 31, 2018 draft of the Master Trust Indenture to be executed and delivered by the Corporation on or before the Effective Date.

1. No later than 60 days after the Effective Date (unless such date is either (a) extended, in writing, by the Corporation and Assured or (b) waived, in writing by Assured), the Corporation’s Restructured Sales Tax Bonds, Series 2019B (the “Bonds”) shall be subject to mandatory tender for purchase by the Corporation, the tender price for which shall be paid from proceeds of the remarketing of the Bonds. The Corporation agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to remarket the Bonds as Insured Bonds pursuant to an “offering” within the meaning, and in compliance with the requirements of Rule 15c2-12 adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Exchange Act as amended (“SEC Rule 15c2-12”), on a “firm commitment” basis by Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated or one or more underwriters selected by Assured in its sole discretion (the “Underwriter”). The principal amounts, maturities and interest rates on the remarketed Bonds shall be determined by the Underwriter(s) such that the interest rates on the remarketed Bonds shall be the lowest interest rates necessary for the Bonds to be remarketed with adjusted par amounts and adjusted terms that otherwise result in the Bonds being remarketed at the lowest aggregate yield; provided, however, that (a) the sum of the Principal Requirements and Interest Requirements on the remarketed Bonds due in any Fiscal Year shall not be greater than the sum of the Principal Requirements and Interest Requirement due in such Fiscal Year on the Bonds prior to such remarketing and (b) the remarketed Bonds may mature later than the Bonds issued on the Effective Date, but in no event later than June 20, 2059; provided, further, that such remarketed Bonds shall be subject to optional redemption at the same times and at the same redemption prices set forth in Section 3.04(a) of the Second Supplemental Indenture, in the case of Bonds remarketed as Current Interest Bonds and Section 4.03(a) of the Second Supplemental Indenture, in the case of Bonds remarketed as Capital Appreciation Bonds. The principal amount, maturities and mandatory redemption provisions of and interest rates on the remarketed Bonds shall be evidenced by a certificate of determination signed by an Authorized Officer of the Corporation.

2. The gross proceeds of the remarketing of the Bonds shall be paid in full to Assured and shall not be property of the Corporation or any other person. The Corporation shall take all actions necessary to facilitate the remarketing of the Bonds, including (a) negotiating the form of bond purchase agreement with the Underwriter and Assured and (b) preparing a preliminary official statement and final official statement that would enable the Underwriter to timely comply with SEC Rule 15c2-12, to the extent so required, and other securities laws.

3. Pursuant to Section 28.1 of the Plan, all actions and documents necessary to give effect to Section 10.4 of the Plan and this Agreement shall be authorized and approved by the Corporation in all respects without further action by any Person or Entity, except that after the Effective Date, the board of directors of the Corporation shall timely (a) review and approve a draft of the preliminary official statement, (b) approve, in accordance with the Confirmation Order, the remarketing of the Bonds, (c) to the extent necessary, authorize an Authorized Officer to certify the preliminary official statement to be “deemed final” for purposes of SEC Rule 15c2-12 and execute the final official statement for the remarketed Bonds (with such changes to the reviewed draft as are necessary to reflect the pricing terms of the remarketed Bonds and any other changes thereto that are deemed necessary by such Authorized Officer) and (d) review and authorize all other documents and agreements required to be executed or delivered by the Corporation in connection with the remarketing of the Bonds, including the bond purchase agreement.

4. The Corporation’s costs associated with the remarketing of the Bonds (including, without limitation, any underwriter(s) fee or other compensation thereof) shall be payable by the Corporation and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, including from moneys in the amount of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) to be transferred from Department of Treasury and deposited with Banco Popular in a segregated account (the “Costs of Underwriting Account”) on or before the Effective Date; provided, however, that in the event that Assured, in its sole discretion, selects one or more Underwriter other than Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, Assured, rather than the Corporation or the Commonwealth, shall pay the underwriting fees of such Underwriter. The Costs of Underwriting Account shall not constitute part of the trust estate established under the Master Indenture, and moneys in the Costs of Underwriting Account shall be unavailable for any purpose other than to fund the costs associated with the remarketing of the Bonds; provided, however, that any amounts in the Costs of Underwriting Account in excess of the actual costs associated with the remarketing of the Bonds shall be released to the Commonwealth. Disbursement of funds from the Costs of Underwriting Account shall be made at the direction of the Secretary of Treasury.

5. In the event the Corporation fails to pay any costs associated with the remarketing of the Bonds, Assured may elect to pay such costs in its sole discretion, in which case the Corporation and the Commonwealth shall be obligated to reimburse Assured for any costs incurred by Assured in connection with the remarketing of the Bonds. All other terms of the remarketed Bonds and of the remarketing thereof shall be consistent with the Second Supplemental Indenture.

6. If Assured determines that the Bonds cannot be remarketed on terms acceptable to Assured prior to June 15, 2019, Assured shall retain the Bonds.

7. The Parties acknowledge that there is no adequate remedy at law for any breach by the Corporation or the Commonwealth of Section 10.4 of the Plan or this Agreement, and, in the event of any such breach, Assured shall be entitled to specific performance of Section 10.4 of the Plan and of this Agreement and to seek such specific performance in the Title III Court.

8. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to agreements made in and to be performed wholly within such jurisdiction. The Title III Court shall retain jurisdiction from and after the Effective Date of all matters arising from or related to this Agreement to the fullest extent permitted by law. Any disputes, legal action, suit, or proceeding arising from or related to this Agreement (a) shall be brought in accordance with the terms of this Agreement in the Title III Court and any appellate court therefrom, or, in the event such court does not have or accept such jurisdiction, in any federal district court sitting in Puerto Rico and any appellate court therefrom or, in the event such federal district court does not have or accept jurisdiction, a Commonwealth court and any appellate court therefrom and (b) the parties shall be deemed to consent to the jurisdiction thereof.
